

Bogotá august 27/56.

Mr. Geny J. Dexter.

Waterloo, Iowa.

U. S. A.

First I ask you excuse my bad English, but I only study it for one year.

I received your letter to the National Radio or Radiodifusora Nacional. I'm speaker of this Radio about 18 to 24 hours. It's wonderful that you synchronized this Radio so well. I'm enclosing your name and address for the Bulletin.

And now Mr. Dexter I tell you about me: I'm 23 years old I work as ~~speaker~~^Speaker at the National Radio and on the day I student at medical school for my 3rd. year.

The object of this letter is ask for you a favour. I'll like very much have correspondence ^(in English) with an American girl about 15 years; a regular correspondence.

Please if you like, give my address to a girl for my correspondence; I'll write in my bad English; thank you for your interest. (I hope you understand my English.)

My felicitations for your report dates of reception, and ^{for} the perfect organization for your Newark News Radio club.

I'm announcement or speaker of the National Radio, for two years ago.

Sincerely yours,

Guillermo Parra P.

My address is:
