In my first column in the April edition of FRENCH I discussed the problem of large-scale public unawareness of SWL. Ever since then some part of this column has been devoted to creative solutions to that problem. Letters from you have reflected a similar perception of this situation: this, in and of itself, is a positive sign. Even better, though, have been the suggestions for avenues of approach for change. I am delighted to continue this fledgling tradition this month with two very pertinent and intriguing letters.

We start with an exciting announcement from Alan R. Plotnick, Hamden, Connecticut:

I would like to bring to the attention of NASWA members the adoption of a new course at the University of New Haven (in West Haven, Ct. where I teach) called International Broadcasting. This type of course is relatively rare within university programs and it represents an important innovation that should attract a considerable amount of interest in the near future. The plan is to initiate the course (called Communications 416) in September 1986. The content is especially relevant to serious SWLs and DX'ers. Not only will it cover such technical questions as the problems involved in allocating frequencies among competing world broadcasters, but it will include a great deal of historical background on the major broadcasters such as VOA and BBC. Although I am a Professor of Economics and will not be teaching this course, I have volunteered to present some lectures dealing with the subject from the perspective of a NASWA member, looking at international broadcasting as a hobby and recreation. One would hope that this imaginative innovation in university courses will spread to other colleges and universities. When a government is willing to spend millions of dollars every year to present its political, ideological, and economic views, then you know that courses like this are long overdue.

This is a very promising idea indeed and ought to prove very fruitful, and I'm sure we would all wish those involved the very best. In a letter to Prof. Plotnick I expressed the hope that this course work will give rise to a textbook available to the public at large in which sound scholarship will bring clarity to the ever-chaotic field of international broadcasting. My only regret is that I don't live closer to West Haven to take advantage of this opportunity. Maybe I could move...

We move now from the classroom to the marketplace. In the present context this is very logical in that if consumers become more SWL-aware (for example by means of education, or more and more readily available literature), then manufacturers must be in a position to cater to them intelligently. Market research is one tool available in order to accomplish this bringing-together of consumer and manufacturer. To this end, Richard M. Oddie of Sonoma, California, offers, out of the wealth of his experience, the following remarks and challenging proposal:

Something wrong in the North American SW world? Yes, suggests the Editor in April CONTACT and Tim Davison joins him in May. Not enough marketing effort by SW receiver manufacturers on one hand, and not enough quality programming by international SW broadcasters on the other.

Seems a little strange, doesn't it? The manufacturers, some of them both large and sophisticated, don't lack the ability and resources with which to maximize their sales in North America. The broadcasters, expensively supported by their various governments, have everything to gain by pleasing present North American listeners and increasing their number.

But for some reason, nothing seems to happen. We don't see any product ads addressed to the general public, or any institutional ads promoting the benefits and pleasures of SW listening. Someone should do something about this. Perhaps we can.

If the North American SW community, made up of NASWA and other ANARC members, the SW media and the SW equipment dealers organized a voluntary cooperative project to engage in some marketing research, it might be possible to learn a great deal about how to increase the number of SW receiver owners and SW broadcast listeners.

OK, but who will volunteer for a project like this? If it were properly publicized to the SW community, a sufficient number of members, spouses and friends with professional experience in the various fields of marketing research are almost certain to sign up.

This is a feasible project. Divided into small segments, each one carried out accurately, objectively and punctually, the final assembly into a finished report becomes a complex but not overwhelming task.

What would be done with a report like this? First, it would be shared with those who did the work and their associates concerned with project implementation. Then it would be distributed to the SW receiver manufacturers and the thirty or so international broadcasters beaming programs into North America. This should convince them that a great many of their customers and listeners are really interested in their success.

Is this too far-fetched, too ambitious? Not if the SW community both supports it and participates in making it happen. When it does it will build bridges across the distances that separate us from our partners in interest in the GREAT SW-TRIANGLE.

Dick knows whereof he speaks. With experience in manufacturing, sales and management (in his own words: "In five firms went from peon to VP/General manager."); group leader for several sections of the international advertizing firm of McCann Erickson; working for a metropolitan market AM station and for an international SW broadcaster as Director of Programs; with Bank of America for 26 years as the head of the bank's Area Development Department: with all of this experience and more, I believe that Dick has made a useful and workable suggestion. He entitled his proposal THE GREAT SW TRIANGLE and I will pursue his imagery by suggesting that we the shortwave listeners form the base of that triangle, and the structure of the whole is only as strong as the base upon which it is built. It seems to me that we could and should play an important rôle in increasing the strength of our place in the structure. What do you think?

From Larry Vipond, Phoenix, Arizona, comes a letter in which a thorny issue arises:

According to recent media reports in the U.S., an outspoken immigrant from Taiwan was recently murdered in California because of his stated views of the Taiwan government. According to those reports, the California resident's murder was ordered by a high ranking government official of Taiwan. According to the FBI and California police, the "hit squad" was from Taiwan, where it returned after the murder was completed. The more I thought about the situation, the more disturbed I became. I decided to write to those same media reports the Chinese residents of some California communities have become so afraid of the big arm of the government of Taiwan that some Chinese are now wearing bulletproof vests -- especially those persons who have spoken out against the Taiwan government.

After hearing the above reports on TV I became rather disturbed about the fact that a U.S. based religious organization, WYFR Family Radio, made its 'voice' from Okeechobee, Florida available to a foreign government that, according to the FBI, was resorting to the murder of U.S. residents to silence a voice that spoke out against it. The more I thought about the situation, the more disturbed I became. I decided to write to Mr. Harold Camping, President, Family Radio, to voice, in the strongest possible way, my objection to the use of WYFR's shortwave facilities by Radio Free China -- "free" indeed. Mr. Camping's response to my letter is attached. (See below--sgm)

As you will note, Mr. Camping says that he is very sorry about the kind of violence that we are hearing about concerning Taiwan. However, it seems clear that Mr. Camping is quite willing to dismiss that violence -- so long as he can use the transmitter in Taiwan to broadcast the the Gospel into mainland China. I sincerely hope that the mainland Chinese fully appreciate the Family Radio broadcasts beamed at them from Taiwan. They are being paid for with the blood of at least one resident of California -- and who knows how many more?

I don't know about you, but I find Mr. Camping's letter to be a remarkable document. I sincerely hope that all NASWA members will write to Mr. Camping in Oakland, California and voice their strong objections to Radio Free China's continued use of Family Radio's shortwave facilities in the United States.

Here, then, is Harold Camping's reply:

I am very sorry that there exists the kind of violence that we are hearing about concerning Taiwan. I suppose in every nation there is violent action taken when people feel they cannot have their way. One great need of this world is that there might be more and more mutual understanding between nations. This is what we are endeavoring to do with our trade with Radio Free China.

Our experience has been that by broadcasting the Gospel into mainland China we are projecting an image of the United States that cannot be done with Voice of America or other political broadcasts. We believe it is an image that is helping to build friendships between peoples of mainland China and the United States. These broadcasts to mainland China are possible only because of our trade with Radio Free China. Moreover, we also believe that we have built friendships between the peoples of the United States and the Republic of China through this trade. Therefore, we believe that, even though violence can erupt in this tense world, we do not want that violence to curtail the long-range efforts that are being put forth to build friendships between nations.

I do appreciate your concern, and I am grateful that you have written to me. Thank you for this concern.

So, the question is just this: Is a broadcaster, and if so to what extent, responsible for the moral and ethical position of the party whose programming he broadcasts? This already painful problem is exacerbated when the broadcaster's purpose is the application of Christian principles to broadcasting practice. Another question (perhaps the same question in another guise): What is the proper balance (if such exists) between the accountability of the broadcaster in these matters, and the need of that broadcaster to remain on the air? Very probably there is no single, all-purpose, answer to these questions, but I think that they are well worth pondering.

This has been a very meaty column. I hope that it raised some thoughts and questions, and that you will share them with us: your letters are always welcome. To those who have written, as always, my thanks.

John Demmitt (Box A, K0848, Bellefonte, Pennsylvania 16823) has written back to me to see if anyone in NASWA can provide him with a MW bandscan from the Republic, Ohio area. He says that he's not necessarily interested in exotic DX but simply in what is heard in that area.

A personal plea -- can anyone help me to find the first two editions of LA-DXing from Radio Nuevo Mundo, Tokyo, Japan. These are now out of print and I don't seem to be able to find any on my own. If you can help me, please write to me first so that we can settle the financial details, among others.

Easy Listening

Editor: Alex Batman, 4636 Alvin Dark, Apt. 2, Baton Rouge, LA 70820

It's been a fine month for shortwave listening, at least for me, and I hope for everyone else. This month Erich Schulman of Oak Ridge, Tennessee makes his first appearance in the column. I'm especially pleased because Erich is the first person to contribute to "Easy Listening," and I hope he is the forerunner of many more.

Let me know what you're listening to and whether it's good or bad. When you report, please include: 1. The day of the week (U.S. time--changing days at 0700 GMT); 2. The time (GMT); 3. The name of the program (not absolutely necessary if you can't catch the title, but preferred); 4. The station and country; 5. a brief description of the program details; 6. The frequency. Remember that opinions about the quality of the program are often matters of taste and not necessarily shared by everyone, but if you feel strongly that a particular program deserves five stars or ought to be trashed, by all means let us know.

MONDAY

- 1115-1200: "Morning Sounds" (Trans World Radio, Netherland Antilles). This is a program with Caribbean news, music requests, and advice features. A maritime report is included at the end. The MS presenter also asks the news reader trivia questions. News is reported quite objectively, though rather briefly. Most of the news on this program may be heard earlier and in more detail on "Caribbean Report" on VOA. (11815--Schulman, TN) (M-F)
- 0250-0300: "Spotlight on Sports" (Radio Berlin International, East Germany). The program features sports news of international and specifically East German interest such as end of football season in East Germany and international gymnastic competition with, of course, special emphasis on East German competitors. The program includes scores if they are covered in the feature story, but goes beyond scores to special reports and some analysis. (9560, 9620--this is a repeat of earlier broadcasts at 2215 GMT on 6125/6165 and at 0000 and 0130 on 9730/11975. Also repeated for West Coast at 0530 GMT on 9620/11790).

TUESDAY

- 0100-0150: "Passport" (HCJB, Ecuador). This program can vary greatly from day to day. Typical features are readings from the bible ("Good News Verse"), South American tales, South American rhythms, and reports from NASA and National Geographic. Fridays are special reports which focus on one thing, i.e., travel in Ecuador, Peru, and Bolivia. All programs include news of Latin America, and the news appears objective albeit rather brief. (15155/9745--Schulman, TN) (M-F).
- 0135-0150: "People and Places" (Deutsche Welle, West Germany). A program of special features in the West Germany news. Past features have included an interview with a former Luftwaffe general on the subject of reconciliation (right around the time of the Bitburg controversy), a new bank in West Germany that will loan money only to ecologically sound projects or for environmental improvement, and a recent update of the Luther Bible in German and the controversy surrounding it. (6040/6085/6145/9545/9565/11785; repeated for West Coast at 0535 GMT on 5960/6130/9545/9690/11705).

WEDNESDAY

- 0010-0030: "RCI Journal" (Radio Canada International, Canada). This is a special news magazine featuring stories of both political and human interest. Past features have included Canada's potential involvement in the "Star Wars" defense system (including tape interviews with both supporters and opponents), Canadian electronics industry's involvement with the Consumer Electronics Show in Chicago, and a dinner roast in honor of "Rocket Richard," a retired hockey player who many claim was the greatest of all time. (11960/9755. Repeated at 0200 and 0300 GMT on 5960/9755) (M-F).
- 0050-0110: "Radio World" (BRT, Belgium). This is a slightly different format than most DX programs. Instead of giving out as many tips as time will allow, the program features one or two stations and reports the transmitting schedules and areas served by time and frequency. Also includes propagation conditions. (5910/9925).

THURSDAY

- 0910-1100: "Soundabout" (Radio Australia, Australia). This is a program of Australian, European, and American rock music (including Madonna and Prince). Commentary between songs is brief and informative and occasionally expresses a critical opinion. The opinions I heard were usually in agreement with my own which means that Susan Dowling, who presents the program, must like the same things I do or vice versa. (9580).
- 0435-0445: "From the Land of Music" (Radio Havana, Cuba). A daily program with typical music of Cuba. Song titles are given in EG and SP. (6100/6090/6145/9745) (D). (Schulman, TN).

FRIDAY

- 2140-2200: "Thank Goodness It's Friday" (Kol Israel, Israel). The program usually features some aspect of traditional Jewish culture such as Sabbath Day music or an exhibit in an Israeli museum. The program always contains a five minute interpretation of Jewish law and traces its roots to the Torah or the Talmud. (9435/11655/15585; repeated at 0010 GMT on 9435/9815/11655).
- 0210-0255: "Africa Today" (Radio RSA, South Africa). This is a program of special news features affecting South Africa and its relations with other countries or with its own internal difficulties. Focus of the program is quite often on economics and industry, and it may include interviews with black South African leaders. As a purely personal comment, I find that this program takes an intrinsically interesting and controversial subject and turns it into pure boredom. (9615/5980/6010).

SATURDAY

- 0030-0100: "Baker's Half Dozen" (BBC, England). This is a program of six short pieces of classical music including arias. The names of the artists are given as well as pertinent recording information, but there is little analysis of the music itself. Good for those who like classical music. (5975/6120/6175/7325/9590/9915).
- 0150-0215: "Shortwave Feedback" (Radio Nederlands, Netherlands). This is a mailbag program that answers questions from listeners, plays song requests and tapes of those who telephone the station, and includes information about other Radio Nederlands programs. You can also use the program to relay a message to a SWL in another country. (6020/9895; repeated from Bonaire at 0250 GMT on 6165/9590 and for the West Coast again at 0550 GMT on 6165/9715).

SUNDAY

- 2101-2114: "World Service Short Story: (BBC, England). This program features short stories supplied by listeners. Stories should be original and unpublished. Topics are unlimited and they have included Maori statues in New Zealand and a garden wall separating a country to which no one can go -- except as a special guest. (15260--Schulman, TN).

0310-0330: "Shortwave Listener's Digest" (Radio Canada International, Canada). An excellent DX program for both the intermediate and the advanced DXer. Features include equipment reports (there is a special bi-weekly series on pre-selectors at present), propagation conditions, a telecommunications series on computers, and Glenn Hauser's DX tips. This is fast becoming my favorite DX program. (5960/9755).

Once again, that's all for this month. If you're listening to anything particularly good, particularly bad, or just plain mediocre, let us know. Until next month, good listening.

Cliff Belmont

NASWA NOVICE by Gregory M. Bailey

As you may have read in the March 1985 issue of FRENDX, NASWA has been interested in writers for columns of SWL information. I have requested space in FRENDX to attempt to deliver useful information to beginners and other Shortwave listeners. I will try to stick to basic information, hints and tips for getting started. Some of the subjects I will cover are:

- a. GMT and You
- b. Basic Antennae Construction
- c. Tuning: Where, When and How
- d. Choosing Inexpensive Equipment
- e. Where and How To Find Further Information On Shortwave Listening

We at NASWA feel a responsibility to help educate anyone in need of SWL information, particularly newcomers. Without newcomers our hobby would have no future.

I'd like to begin with GMT and your QTH (location).

The time used for shortwave broadcasting is called Greenwich Mean Time or Universal Time. GMT gets its name from the Meridian of Greenwich which passes through Greenwich, England and is the first line of the new day. To prevent total chaos, shortwave broadcasters use GMT as their reference time. Your local time will differ from GMT according to what time zone you live in. If you are not certain of your local time/GMT relation, check WWV on 5.0, 10.0 or 15.0 MHz. Remember that this will change if your area goes on or off Daylight Saving Time, but it makes no difference if you're tuning Australia, Africa, England, or the good'ole U.S.A., GMT is the same everywhere, year-in and year-out.

GMT is based on a twenty-four hour clock system as in the military. For example: 7:00 A.M. is 0700 hours, 12:00 noon is 1200 hours, 2:00 P.M. is 1400 hours, 7:00 P.M. is 1900 hours, and 12:00 midnight is 0000 hours. I would suggest picking up a digital 24-hour clock for your shack or listening post. A separate clock set to GMT will make it easier to forget your local time when you are at your dials. It shouldn't cost more than $10. - $15. for this helpful assessor.

All listeners should keep a logbook containing the information necessary to find the station again and to satisfy the stations requirements for obtaining a QSL card. A typical logbook may have station, hour heard (in GMT), condition of channel location, Kc or MHz and remarks. Leave enough space in the remarks column for an address or program name.

Let me touch briefly on where to find more info on GMT and shortwave listening in general. I would recommend the following: The Shortwave Listener's Handbook, Revised 2nd edition, by Norman Fallon, published by Hayden Book Company, Inc., Rochelle Part, N.J.; the Complete Shortwave Listener's Handbook, by C.R.B. Research, P.O. Box 56, Commack, N.Y., 11725; and the A.R.R.L. Radio Amateur's Handbook, published by the A.R.R.L., Newington, CT. 06111. The A.R.R.L. also has a book list that is well worth your time and the stamp to send for it. If you don't have the cash to buy these publications, I would suggest your local public or school library. They should be able to get them for you if they don't have them. You'll be surprised how many good books you will find if you look! I would like to emphasize that just because I haven't mentioned a particular book does not mean it isn't good.

If you are just getting started with this hobby, be resourceful. Explore a ham fest or flea market to browse and talk with other shortwave listeners.

One other source I have found is Radio Netherlands, which has an extensive list of informative publications. To obtain the list and/or booklets that are free for the asking, write to: Radio Netherlands, P.O. Box 222-1200, JG, Hilversum, Holland. It also offers technical courses for shortwave listeners and ham operators. I have found this to be excellent information, easily obtained, and usually free, or at a modest price.

JAPAN REFLECTIONS

Bill Whitacre

The VOA broadcasts to many places in many languages. Different programs are based on different listener needs and the reasons people listen to VOA reflect this.

People in Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union listen to find out what is happening outside, and sometimes inside, their own borders, people in Central America listen to find out what the Great Giant to the north has done today and people in Africa listen to see if there is anything America can do to help them in their many problems.

People in Japan, though we do not broadcast in Japanese, listen to VOA to hear "Special English".

According to Japanese listeners I spoke with, English is the unofficial second language of Japan. Children receive four years of it at school, businessmen practice it diligently to sharpen their vocabulary for business advantage and English crops up more and more in print, mingling with otherwise Japanese text.

It is no coincidence that Japan is a literal mecca of young westerners teaching English to Japanese for 10-14 dollars per hour. Nor is it a coincidence that the American accent is preferred. It is with American citizens and businesses that most Japanese come into contact.

VOA Special English fills a special role for these Japanese. Since Japanese language broadcasts were dropped in 1970, Special English has served a dual purpose. It not only provides a way of keeping informed about the US, but also provides a free English lesson every morning and evening.

It's probably safe to say that in few other places is Special English more listened to than in Japan. DOMO ARIGATO VOA !!

Editor: Paul Lannuier 25 MacArthur Ave. Closter N.J. 07624

Hello and welcome to the first of hopefully many articles that I will write for FRENDX dealing with one of the most enjoyable aspects of shortwave listening: Music Broadcasting. What I would like to do with this column is use it as a forum where listeners can write in and pass along tips and loggings relative to the subject of music broadcasting. In each column, I will write about a single topic such as a station, country, continent, type of music, or whatever. If anyone wants to suggest a topic, I'm all ears.

There is a tremendous amount of music being broadcast every day on the SW bands from all corners of the Earth, and, at almost any given time, one has a good chance of hearing whatever type of music he or she desires, be it Jazz, Latin, Eastern (Arabic), Heavy Metal, Top 40, Gospel, or even tribal chanting.

I cannot name one large international broadcaster that doesn't use this fantastic medium in order to lure listeners to their transmissions, be it a regularly scheduled program or just a few tunes between newscasts and other features. The music played by a big station will generally be intended for an overseas audience, and will not necessarily be what the people in that particular country are listening to. However, there is still a great deal of excellent music coming from the large broadcasters; and, thanks to high power transmitters, one can hear plenty of different types of music with relative ease at any time.

Smaller domestic broadcasters can be even more enjoyable to tune in to. These stations will be directing their transmissions towards a more specific, local audience; and, naturally, the music played by such stations will reflect the culture and musical tastes of the country or province in which the station is located. If you like authentic folk music, domestic stations are hard to beat. One of the biggest drawbacks, however, is that most domestic stations use low power transmitters, since the area of coverage is much smaller than that of an international broadcaster. After a 1 kW signal passes through the ionosphere a few times, much of the signal strength is lost due to ionospheric absorption. The lower the frequency, the more loss of signal strength. And, since most domestic broadcasters operate in the tropical bands,.....I'm sure we all get the picture. So, in order to enjoy the programs from these stations, one must have a fairly decent receiver, an even better antenna, and a good practical knowledge of wave propagation.

The beauty of music listening is that one doesn't have to shy away from a station that isn't transmitting in a familiar language. Plenty of my favorite stations never broadcast in English (which is my only language). Music transcends all language barriers: it is a universal language with many dialects. Even now, while I'm writing this, I'm listening to Africa No.1 in Gabon; and, although all announcements are in French, I still enjoy the upbeat tunes that are the trademark of this station. A few of my other favorites are HCJB (great Indian folk tunes); ORTS, Senegal (heard in these parts during late winter afternoons); the clandestine Voice of the Libyan People (as far as Arabic music goes, this is the best); and, being a hardcore Jazz freak, I am addicted to the Voice of America Jazz Hour. Also, although most of us would rather listen to WWV for 6 hours than hear about how wonderful communist life is, a great deal of decent European folk music can be heard from countries such as Hungary, Czechoslovakia, Albania, and other Soviet bloc countries, despite otherwise boring programming.

And now for what Stephen King would call "an annoying autobiographical pause"..... I was born 21 years ago and have lived in Northern New Jersey ever since. My interests in music began when my parents bought me a guitar for my 10th birthday. My influences at that time were mostly bands such as Deep Purple, Emerson Lake and Palmer, Yes, Uriah Heep, and other early '70's Rock n' Roll bands. From there, I started to get into more progressive stuff, and eventually ended up at Berklee College of Music in Boston, where I am presently studying Jazz Composition and Arranging. I became interested in radios during the CB radio boom in the mid/late '70's. After growing weary of the overcrowded 27 MHz band, I purchased a DX-160 from the local Radio Shack, and soon became a SW fanatic. My present equipment includes a Sony ICF-6500W, a Datong AD-270 indoor active antenna, an RAK Listener 59 antenna tuner, and the DX-160, which is still kickin'. So far this year, I have heard 61 countries, even though I don't get to play with my radios as often as I would like to. I am also currently studying for a ham ticket, which I hope to have before the end of the summer.

In closing, I would like to stress the fact that all reader contributions are both welcome and encouraged. Please write and tell about your favorite music programs or stations, listing the time in GMT, frequency, types of music heard, language(s) used, and any other details. I will be happy to hear from anyone, and all listings used will be credited to the contributor. Also, if you yourself are a musician, tell a little bit about yourself, your musical equipment, musical preferences, etc. So, until next time, good listening and 73's.

REMARKS

ANARC 85 UPDATE: Bill Krause is bringing the Computer Information Committee's collection of C-64 compatible software. I will be bringing "SIL'S Database" and have put together the "FRENEX BBS" program specifically for demonstration at ANARC 85. FRENEX BBS is a bulletin board system patterned on the format of FRENEX. It is written for operation with a Commodore-64, 1650 Modem, one 1541 Disk Drive and a printer. The program is an adaptation of the public domain BBS "64 Machine" by Dave Little of Dallas, TX. Time and equipment permitting, FRENEX BBS will be made available to all interested convention goers free of charge. Bring along your own blank formatted 5 1/4 in. disk for a copy. For those who will not be attending ANARC, I will be happy to mail you a copy of the "FRENEX BBS". Just send a blank 5 1/4 in. disk and $3 to cover postage and handling.

Ron Pokatiloff, author of THE INTERNATIONAL BROADCAST LISTENER'S COMPUTER PROGRAM, is attending ANARC. He will have a sample of his program for demonstration and will be available to take orders.

NEVER VOLUNTEER FOR NUTHIN !!! Somehow I just knew that if I hung around the publishing committee long enough something like this would happen. Allow me to begin with a few thoughts.

While I am the "Technical" editor of this technical column, I am surely not the most technically minded or electronically trained member of NASWA. Saying this up front means I am depending on all of our membership to provide input to this column and technical expertise to meet its needs. This is not limited to the engineering giants of our hobby but also beginners are most welcome. If you are new to the hobby or new to electronics and you have worked out a problem or come up with an idea, please share it with us through these pages so other beginners (and experts) can share in what you've learned. Send your input and information to: SKIP AREY, POB 45, BEVERLY, NJ 08010.

When I offered to take responsibility for this column, Bill Oliver explained that the column would benefit from more receiver reviews. I agree, but once I've reviewed my R-390A and my Panisonic RF-9 I find myself out of receivers to review. This presents two possibilities:

- 1) You can carefully pack up your various receivers and ship them to me (return postage included) and I will be most happy to review them. I may even return them in a reasonable period of time if they don't impress me.

OR

- 2) You could write a review of your impressions of your own receiver. And guess what! your review does not even have to be of a totally technical nature. Just tell us if your happy with it and include a copy of the specifications or manual and we do the rest.

As you can see I will not be running a "My receiver can beat up your receiver" format. I had just as much fun with my long departed DX-160 as I do now with my R-390A. I simply want to know what people are using, if it works for them, and if others might be interested in using the same receiver for similar reasons.

So much for the soapbox... On to topics most technical and useful.

ICOM WARNING!
ICOM WARNING!
ICOM WARNING!

TO ALL OWNERS OF R71,751,271 or 471 ICOM RECEIVERS AND TRANSCEIVERS.

Robert S. Parnass, AJ9S, Technical advisor to the American Radio Relay League, has made an important discovery which he reports in the June 1985 issue of QST magazine.

It seems that all of the above listed gear use a similar memory plug-in board for frequency control. This common board is powered by a small long life lithium battery. Disconnection of this lithium battery (even momentary disconnection associated with its replacement) allows the RAM (Random Access Memory) IC's to lose their memory. The amnesia is not user repairable. The only cure is to return the board to ICOM for reprogramming. This reprogramming will also be necessary when the lithium battery runs down at the end of its seven year life. Remember that the seven years began at the factory not the day you purchased the receiver. Parnass confirmed this malady with the technical folks at ICOM.

Theoretically, a RAM based board is a neat feature in that it can allow for changes in band structures in the amateur radio frequencies. When a new band opens up due to a WARC decision or FCC deregulation, no sweat, just send the board back for new programming. But a general coverage receiver such as the R71 covers all of the HF frequencies so I wonder why ICOM didn't go to ROM (Read Only Memory) chips for this receiver. Perhaps it was a manufacturing cost decision made by the bean counters up in accounting.

This problem does not detract from the overall performance of this generation of ICOM hardware but it does mean the owner needs to keep apprised of the policy and procedure for returning this board, up to seven years in the future when receivers of comparable performance will probably be built into our wristwatches.

The Parnass article did not mention the R-71A. I will try to contact ICOM on this but we might get a faster answer if someone out there in NASWALand could look in their manual and see if the frequency control board is lithium battery supported.

Its not that anyone forgot but I would like to take a moment here to once again thank Jim Herkimer for his expert service as editor of this column. I first came into correspondence with Jim through the articles he contributed to my newsletter The R-390 Journal (now called the Hollow State News). Jim's competence and expertise as an editor will be missed but rest assured I will attempt to prevail upon him to be a regular contributor to Technical Topics.

Jim Herkimer supplied us with a few bits of left over information to help get my editorship off the ground. One piece of information I found useful came from Charles Belland. Charles writes:

" A few months ago I sold my Yeasu FRG7000 at a Hamfest. I hadn't been using it since I began using my ICOM R70. However, the FRG7000 has a clock on it which can be set for UTC time and local time. I was still using the clock on the 7000 for getting the time of my loggings. After selling the FRG7000, I was lost without the clock.

After using my wristwatch for a period of time, I discovered the Radio Shack "Stick-on LCD Calendar Clock" part #63-840. It cost only $3.88. I bought a few of these and mounted them on a wooden stand that I had made. They have tape on the back to mount the clocks. Now I can set the clocks for UTC, local, or any other times I may need. I never lose the time when the power goes off as I did before with the FRG7000 clock. These LCD clocks are very accurate and above all inexpensive. Anyone who doesn't have a time source now should consider making what I call the "Bolland Timer".

Thanks Charles. I can't help but add a little black humor and say that you should put lithium batteries in the Bolland Timer so you will know when to send the R70 back for reprogramming.

Another good source for these little clocks is any one of the national chain discount stores (K-Mart, Bradlees, etc.). You can find these little clocks for under two dollars if you look around.

Well the first column is always the hardest. The next will so much better because it will be full of information sent in by the membership of NASWA. Keep those cards and letters coming folks.

Skip W B2GHA

CHINA Tianjin 3rd stn hrd 16/5 on 8400 // 10725 at 1400, starting out w/mx, ID in Beijing accent, mx; my Mandarin-speaking interpreter Duyen Nguay says pgm started w/EG lit class, referring to Vol 69, Chapter 36, and that 23/5 & 31/5 they'd review ch 37 + 38; xiting EG lit into Chinese; then kept repeating the number 60136, beeps, back into lit, back to numbers. A year ago a Chinese speaking minister told me it was a spy stn; also cf Feb FRENCH under TAIWAN re a Golden Star Broadcasting on 8400 arnd the same time. On 20/5 hrd half hr bc at 1400 on 8400 followed by code or RTTY; same ID as 1500 bc but shorter; 1500-1545 bc last year is close to one hour this year, then mx, ID 1600, and I think same pgm as 1500, but can't verify because of noise & prop. 21/5 1400 on 8400: interpreter determined that "96103" mentd in connexion w/lottery drawing; would announce winner at same time Fri, a number close to that so hang on to your tickets; then EG lit xtd into CH, then number 96103 repeated backwards, w/beeps; code after 1430; 1500 bc produced ID Tianjin Guangbo Diantai --- Pai (meaning cards) and she said "why that's like Reno" w/gambling show her Chinese aunt used to listen to. Backwards number again 30169. Duyen doesn't understand what part the EG lit plays. Hope to monitor and tape more to clear this up. Other number read was 95926; she says pgm is boring. 23/5 1400 pgm, they did announce winner at end, thanked listeners. Bob Palmer in Spokane IDed the following code as ships, so no spy msgs; and no mentn of Golden Star BCing. More monitoring needed from others in Nam (Bruce MacGibbon, Gresham OR)

The projected CURAÇAO transmitter will involve three separate corporations; site there is at the NW tip of the island near West Point, on govt land. As for an interim outlet to get back on the air for NAM listeners, negotiations w/ V of NICARAGUA were going well and if approved quickly a start of 1/7 was possible [presumably on 6015, time unk]; reluctant to use Ecos del Torbes, VENEZUELA, 4980 now due to high summer static level impeding reception; COSTA RICA's Radio Reloj was still interested and was checking on possible new fqs for carrying R Earth; communication w/R Impacto was difficult; and R Columbia was asking too much (via Jeff White, R Earth) External being on the tropical bands is strictly against ITU regulations; it's about time SWLs supporting R Earth & complaining about ute QRM here to trop band beers, and to OOB SWEGERS, realized this (David Newkirk, WA) Yes, but Earth would merely be a pgm on an existing facility (Torbes) not deliberately beaming to NAM & presumably w/out making any technical changes to do so... Why some stns no longer QSL: I had an interesting discussion at R Popular, 4800 in Cuenca w/ mgr who said stn used to send out QSLs, letters and pennants but never hrd from DXers afterwards so they stopped. If the DXers had responded w/a thank-you or perhaps another reception report later, chances are the stn'd still be giving out QSLs & pennants. 3037.7, R Yungay, Yungay, Ancash sometimes goes till 0200!; as hrd 21/4. 3846.7 wpx, unID Pv distorting in this range hrd 20/4 0130 after being arnd 3859-3854 the past two weeks. Still unID due to distortion. Hrd 25/4 on 3853.9 apx 0100 naming location of Puna Alta, but rest of amnt lost to QRH; 0103 gave TC as 8:08 en Celendín, so seems there; back to distortion. 0131 ads for Bagua Grande stores. 6/5, found this was really a 3rd harmonic as hrd on 3853.5 and 2568.9 at same time. 4004.8, R Grau, Huancabamba, Piura, 27/4 till [missing], G sigs. 4459.8, R Norandina, Celendín, Cajamarca, first hrd w/30 over 9 sig and perfect mod, huaynos 5/5 0005; 0008 ID: "Desde Celendín, transmite R Norandina, desde el Jirón 2 de Mayo 1261" So perhaps it's the same as R Gran Pajatén, w/new name? Remember that when they first appeared 2 yrs ago they were on 4460.0; reappeared w/lousy xmtr arnd 4095-4200; but last time w/xmtr vy similar to this one in signal they were on 4485.3. inactive more than a month there. Quite sure this new Pv'll effectively block faint Rdf LV del Trópico, Bolivia on 4458.0. R Norandina ancr is evidently quite inexperienced, making lots of mistake. Slogan: "la nueva imagen en radio" So it's the 6th SW in that city; however 2 are inactive--Gran Pajatén and Nuevo Edén. Ancing also 'banda intl de 75 m'. Next day was on 4459.9; closes at 0400* 4907.8, R Cobriza 2000, Pacaycasa, first hrd here w/salsa wx 0025 18/4; next day on 4926.8. 5103.6, R Mundo, Cuzco, Cuzco, first hrd w/distorted sig, little USB component, mostly LSB, but only detectable in AM. Varying up a little to 5103.8; so seems xmtr problem because first time in a sequiyear off normal fq 5120.4. Also first time it has been distorted. 5701 apx to 5718 apx, R Chota, Chota, Cajamarca, spurious. Hrd totally distorted, absolutely no carrier, covering nearly 20 kHz; virtualy impossible to get ID if any; SP pops, quite old, 28/4 2115, thot maybe Jaen again w/useless SW xmtr. Resembles it a lot; later going to 5705-5690 range; 2150 w/Pgy wx. Following days hrd distorting arnd 5720; after some checking, hrd an ID as 'R Chota' so is spur, // 6296. Don't confuse this w/well-mod sig of R San Miguel Arcángel on exactly 5720.5 & stable, which doms ch after carrier opening 2344 & NA 2345 [more below]. Reason for R Chota spur could be new xmtr, because sig now very good, far better than before on 6296.4. 5720.5, R San Miguel Arcángel, San Miguel, first hrd 24/4 0144, ID but uncopyable; only hrd ancr excuses as first days on air w/tech problems; 0149 clear ID "Esta es R San Miguel Arcángel, desde la provincia de San Miguel departamento de Cajamarca, República del Perú" So same stn as a year ago on 5707, but then ID only as R San Miguel. Next day *0100 ancg 5820 kcs; after that opening at 2345; also ancr 'banda de los 56 metros'. Per amnt, producer of some pgs there is Antonio Cuevas Lozano; 2350 pgs is "Atardecer San Miguelino"; other personnel are Luis Alberto Cuevas Lozano, and Italo Lozano, so seems a family affair. Sig in Lima now nearly 20 over 9; easily covers R Chota spur as mentd above; 0023 begins 'Por los caminos del Ande' produced by someone called Mendoza. 5801.7-5801.8, Frecuencia San Ignacio, San Ignacio, Cajamarca, new stn using old R Acuña, Chota xmtr! First hrd w/new name and QTH 13/4 2350 ancg they are in San Ignacio prov, on the frontier; as hrd on R Universo, in same prov, lots of comunicados for Santa Rosa area in Jaen prov. VG sigs; evidently w/QTH change, xmtr/ant far better adjusted. Lots of ads for shops in city of San Ignacio, San Ignacio, Cajamarca; F & M ancrs are not same as when xmtr was in Chota as R Acuña. Indeed, far better than former ones. Quite sure that w/new sig, extended sked, stn'll be hrd in States and added to record of many good DXers. Sig in Lima is 10+ dB over 9; going some days to 0400. 6348.5, R Utcubamba, Bagua Grande, Amazonas, now hrd beginning opns in eves abt 0100, going till 0500. POLAND I've been hearing excellent sigs from R Polonia on 15120; guess their sigs always pick up around this time of year on 15 MHz; why? Was hearing them off & on via 7 MHz fqs til last week when stumbled across 15120; co-channel QRM is quite minuscule from a VOA xmtr somewhere. R Polonia sigs especially peppy 0200-0355, nice to hear that folk mx again; hail, Polonia! (Chuck Kristan, Delmont PA) Reason is solstice max of Arctic day or two-light over path from NAM to EEU, keeping MUF up, and making lower 7 MHz signals more subject to absorption (gh)

New Straits Times nrxpaper recently said "Now only abt 2000 guerrillas based in camps in southern Thailand keep alive the hope of one day turning 'capitalist Malaysia' into a Marxist state. Some 1200 guerrillas belong to the orthodox Communist of Malaya [sic], 770 to a breakaway Communist Party of Malaysia Marxist-Leninist faction, & 90 to the Communist Party of Malaysia Revolutionary Faction." That explains why there are two diff clans run by CPM. Great possibility they are in S Thailand as they are active there. I believe VOPM is operated by CPM while V of Malayan Democracy is run by CPM-ML or CPM-RF. Per same report a certain commander of Thailand's Army, LtGen Wanchai Jitjumbo was quoted as saying "his forces are determined to wipe out CPM activity in S Thailand" so it'll be interesting to see how long stn lasts if they indeed op from S Thailand (Plus Heng, WDXG)

E Timor/Australia Ops of a clandestine radio link w/anti-Indo guerrilla group in E Timor has asked Australian govt to legalize their xmt. Brian Manning, spokesman for Au Coalition for E Timor told reporters group had applied for license to xmit to guerrillas in the former Portuguese colony annexed by Indonesia in 1976, and now called Propinsi Jawa Timur. Mr Manning said radio contact w/E Timor had resumed in Jan after a 6-yr silence after guerrillas obtained radio eqp. Indonesia said recently it expected Canberra to close radio link. Cause journalists and other independent observers are unable to gain access to island, radio contact'd allow them to at least obtain guerrillas' views of situation. License application is pending (undated Reuter dispatch via Frank F Orcutt, Buffalo NY, 8/6) I vaguely recall it was called Fretilin R, and somewhere in 6 Mhz fixed band (gh)

R Monimbó, 6230: C Zettl of México is right--Monimbó ancs certainly have distinctive accents and are almost definitely Miskito. Monimbó is a Miskito barrio in Masaya city that was the site of the first major public uprising against Somoza and was the center of anti-Somoza revolts in early 1978. On 21/2, inhabitants of the neighborhood held a memorial mass for Pedro Joaquín Chamorro, the recently-assassinated editor of La Prensa; the Guardia Nacional "brutally dispersed the mourning mass celebrants with tear gas and rifle butts," per journalist Bernard Diederich. Miskitos fought back, meeting Guardia's tanks and machine guns with cane spears, machetes, and old hunting rifles. Guardia finally won the 8-block neighborhood on 28/2. An estimated 2000 Miskitos fought; estimates of Miskito dead ranged from 50 to 200, incl many children. Miskitos' resilience and the Guardia's murder of over 20 Indians who had laid down their weapons inspired uprisings in the rest of the country. Monimbó was later the base for FSLN attacks against Masaya. It's likely that by using the name "Monimbó" the stn's organizers want to remind unhappy Miskitos of their fight against Somoza and plant the idea of another uprising, this time against the Sandinistas. Stn is firmly anti-Sand and sounds pretty slick for a supposedly poor, grass-roots clandestine. Story behind Monimbó is fascinating. If someone wants more details, Bernard Diederich's Somoza has a section on it; Gregorio Selzer's chronology (Spanish) in La Batalla de Nicaragua shows Monimbó's effect on the uprisings against Somoza. In A Revolução das Crianças (Portuguese), Caco Barcellos gives a dramatic first-hand account of the battle in Monimbó. P.S.: Some of Monimbó's blurbs: "la voz de la democracia y libertad"; "la voz de la libertad democrática" or "la voz de la libertad y democracia"; "transmitiendo en la frecuencia de la libertad y la esperanza del pueblo nicaragüense"--I like this one!; "en la onda de la verdad" (Cathy Moore, Madison WI) Great! R Martí June 1N's report on this station was written on Day 2, 21/5; on Day 3, it shifted the 12-14 block to 9570 from 9580 due to complaints from R Australia listeners; however, near its target area here, RM is so strong that hash from 10 kHz away still disrupts RA. VOA apologized, saying it was relying on ITU registrations that RA is being to the Pac then; so RA has itself to blame for having officially deleted NAM as a target area; this flap actually made the wire services. Reaction? Cuban travel ban not strictly enforced w/chartered flights still going to Miami; 5 weeks later there was none of the direly-threatened Cuban jamming of US MW stns or even increased jamming of 1180 itself.. RM was supposedly not appealing to today's Cubans in Cuba, with its pre-revolutionary sound and inability to tell them anything they don't already know about living conditions there; yet, the Cuban exiles weren't happy with it either, since it's nowhere near so hardline anti-communist as your typical Miami Cuban stn. Altho it plays an old novela and an old comedy, the rest of RM sounds pretty modern to me; I like their music and production. The signature tune is "Clave a Martí," or Key to Martí, written shortly after the patriot's death; in xltnt: "There is a voice missing here, the voice of that Cuban mocking-bird, of that brother martyr, whose name was Martí, whose name was Martí." Castro reacted vehemently not only to the stn but in particular to the choice of name since Martí is regarded as Communist Cuba's national hero; rather uncharitably, he refuses to grant the Cuban exiles the same feeling toward him, and they, of course, say Martí would never have approved of communism. The US again finds itself in the middle of a proto-civil war (gh)

Jamming of R Martí started on Day 4, especially on 1930 & 9660, and R Moscow squeezed it on 9655 & 9665; jamming seems to come from existing facilities in EU (Joe Buczynski, MA, RNMN 30/5) There is jamming on these fqs, but remember that they are shared with RFE/RL, already jammed, so it's risky to conclude R Martí was deliberately jammed; if so, certainly ineffective in target area, tho while in UKROGANI I was never able to hear RM either due to propagation, jamming or QRM from closer stns--Spain 9570, Libya 11815 (gh)

In the 30/5 Miami Herald a 'diplomatic source' was cited as saying Cuba was planning to inaugurate an EG MW pgm to US called "Radio Lincoln"; there was some 2 months worth of pgming available and stn merely awaiting green light from govt (David Potter, DXSF 6/6) Contrary to the RNMN report of 23/5, jamming of 1180 kHz is not new, SW fqs are ancd over R Martí, and the Cuban exiles I've heard interviewed or talked to do support pgm; maybe RNMN should stick to the boring topic of Euro offshore radio (Terry Krueger, DXSF 6/6) Many phases of media guilty of spreading misinfo abt RM; vast majority of Cub-Am exiles support RM and its inauguration was treated as something of a National Holiday in Miami! Local south FL media had to search pretty hard to find anti-R Martí Cubans in Miami! No real jamming noted on 1180, despite media reports, especially ABC NIGHTLINE which aired the sound of severe TVI and called it jamming! The weak carrier on 1180.7 was absent 21/5, but that has been on and off for years and certainly doesn't constitute a serious effort to block RM. Fq 1180.070 is a TV sweep oscillator harmonic (75 x 15,734 kHz, 525 line NTSC color, per NRC chart) (Steve Reinstein, DXSF)

20/5, TASS reported on Cuban govt reaction: decision of USG to start 'subversive' bcs beamed to Cuba was cynical, provocative. Cuban people regarded as 'gross insult' its using 'glorious' name of fighter for Cuba's freedom & independence, José Martí. Cuban govt statement to head of dept representing US interests in Havana stressed 'unsauroy provocation' staged by US at a time when Cuba was taking constructive steps in various spheres to ease tension betw 2 countries. RM pgms showed 'obvious' intention of US to answer rudely the justifiable statements of the Cub govt abt critical economic position of countries of Lam/3rd World, huge forndebt which could not be repaid and plundering of economy of those countries which'd been possibilized by inequitable system of intl rels. No doubt USG was striving to create arnd Cuba an atmosphere of tension & conflict which'd distract attn of world public from these serious problems. Calling the USG axion 'perfidy', Cuban govt ancd counter-measures involving revision of existing agreements betw the 2 countries on a number of questions (WBI 23/5) WBI 30/5 misquoted MN re the SW sked, claiming 9750 instead of 9570 (gh) R Martí has been heavily covered in the press, but here are two items in particular you may want to look up: Granma Weekly Review May 26, carries the ofl Cuban govt statement about RM (via Owen Williamson, TX) Wall Street Journal, June 7 has "A Visit with Fidel" by Arthur Schlesinger, Jr., frequently touching on Dr Castro's personal reaction (via James J Halsema)

Those reporting reception to R Martí promptly received a verification letter from Fran Masterman, Management Asst, R Martí Pgm, VOA, Wash DC 20547, promising to follow with a QSL card when they are available; she gave the usual SW sked, site not specified but definitely Greenville, with powers as 250 kW on 6075 9570 9660; 500 kW on 11815 11960. The last is a mistake, for 11930 where it still is confirmed to be (via Tom Gavaras, MN; Phillip Dampier, NY) Contradicting this is an item from Robert Jones, who normally has good inside VOA info, that xmtrs are only 50 kW, GA7 and GA8 alternating, at 205°; strength here suggests otherwise, tho 50 ought to be adequate over such a short path in the absence of jamming (via ADXN, gh comments) RM hrd 24/5 1245 on 9570 w/Panorama Artístico, gave SW sked, 1300 ID, Cuban mx thruout; I wonder how Cuban clands like LV del CID will react to the 'new kid on the block'? MEXICO [cf main section] R Huayacocotla, XEJN-OC, recently subject to slander campaign promoted by those whose interests are affected by the community stn's pgm. Axions taken by caciques--powerful local political & economic leaders--whose influence reaches highest rank of Mex govt, almost led to closure of stn. Mid-Mar, govt people turned up there accusing it of already using the not yet authorised MW channel; closure could be prevented this time, but already-assigned MW channel 1370 was taken away as a consequence. Offl reason given is that for MW, ant has to be situated outside the village, but everyone in Huaya knows there is a decisive political background to the story. This is the 2nd time permission for AM xmtr refused by authorities. Meanwhile, R Huaya'll continue on 2390 and promote use of cheap qvt converters, distributed by stn, to be used w/ordinary AM/FM sets. R URAM's CE, Eusebio Mejía Maldonado, told me their 1 kW Collins SW xmtr, put into svc 12/10/37, is already in vry bad shape used only sporadically during lcl morns *1300 and that only when enrgs at Ticoman xmtr site are not using phone or watching TV as the unisolated xmtr is heavily interfering w/both (Christian Zettl, México, May, Radio Nuevo Mundo, 13/6) After all, which is more important? "La Voix de la Résistance Basque"

"The Voice of the Basque Underground"

Basques were a free nation throughout history. France's attempt in 1808, executed by Hitler and Mussolini, crushed the Basques despite their status as the remnants of their ancient freedom. Now under Spanish rule, without elementary human rights, Basques fight under duress to restore democracy to their land.

En 1808, un 1. joug et par l'histoire, par sa langue et par sa culture de terre en liberté. Le fait de nous être nos nos louches dans des - et l'oppression en détruisant le peuple basque de la France.

Assemblies of Jehovah

BETHEL, PA. 16807

"That Men May Know that Thou whose Name alone is YAHWEH, art the Most High over all the Earth." Psalm 83:18

Richard A. D'Angelo
2216 Burkley Drive
Wymissing, PA 19610

Dear WMLK listener,

Greetings from Bethel in Jehovah's Great Name!

Your letter of recent date has arrived here at Bethel in which you have informed us of your receiving the signal from our Short Wave Radio Station, WMLK.

Your communication, reporting the strength of the radio signal and summarizing the contents of the transmission, has been very helpful. You have accurately described the signal which was transmitted on the date you specify receiving it.

In appreciation of your informative communication I have enclosed "Introducing the Assemblies of Jehovah" and a copy of our "Statement of Doctrine" so that you can determine our stand on scriptural doctrine. In addition, I have placed your name on our mailing list so that you will receive our monthly magazine, The Sacred Name Broadcaster. You will notice the radio log we print periodically. Additionally, we shall be publishing updated news of the radio station. It is our hope that you will enjoy the articles we publish. Should you desire any additional literature we publish, please feel free to write in and request it.

We hope that you will be a steady listener to Radio Station WMLK. If you are in the area of Bethel, Pennsylvania (located 40 miles west of Allentown and 40 miles east of Harrisburg, and 40 miles north of Lancaster, right on Interstate Route #76), we invite you to drop by for a visit and tour of the transmitter.

Thank you again for your helpful communication. May Almighty Jehovah bless you and watch over you as you serve Him in the Name of Jehovah the Messiah, HalleluYAH.

Cordially,

Richard A. D'Angelo
Elder Jacob O. Meyer

 Some random thoughts... I've been doing this column for nearly two years, and I'm ready to call it quits. Bill Oliver is presently looking for another NASWA member to take over the column. If you're interested, contact Bill. We keep receiving letters in the "Contact" column about publicizing the hobby... Well, NASWA member Austin Kelly of Chicago has really shown that the interest is out there. Austin booked himself and yours truly on WIND-560 in Chicago on the "Ed Currin" Show. Austin and I will be discussing shortwave radio and providing some tapes of broadcasts we've heard. The show airs June 26th, but I'll have a tape of it. If you'd like a copy, perhaps that can be arranged. On the equipment beat, I'm pleased as punch with my new NRD-515. It's a great rx -- but nobody seems to want my HQ-180. What a shame... it's a fine receiver. I guess I'll keep it. Another new piece of equipment is an Apple MacIntosh computer. I've ordered the 128K version but have a source which can upgrade it to 512K for half the price of what dealers charge. More next month. CUN30.

TROPICAL BANDS SURVEY -- 13th edition

GILFER SHORTWAVE is pleased to announce that they will again be representing the Danish Shortwave Clubs International well-known "Tropical Bands Survey". This thirty-two page listing of tropical stations (2000 kHz to 5900 kHz) lists not only the frequency, station, country, power and transmission times in UTC but also the language spoken. This carefully compiled listing is especially valuable during this time of somewhat poor propagation on the lower bands.

The TBS 13 will be available for purchase at the ANARC convention on July 19th or through GILFER SHORTWAVE at 52 Park Avenue, Park Ridge, New Jersey 07656 for $4.50 plus $1.00 shipping and handling.

I. International DX-Championship

From September 1st until November 30th ADDX - the biggest European shortwave-listeners club-will organize the I. International DX-Championship. This competition will be interesting for the top-DXer with a lot of experience and the newcomer, too. After the end of the contest every participant will get a certificate with his results. Those, who are on the first places will receive valuable prizes, for example shortwave-receivers, little radios, DX-literature, souvenirs, DX-equipment and consolation prizes.

You can participate in this DX-Championship even if you are not member in the ADDX. We'll answer in German or English and, if you prefer, also in Spanish or French. You have to pay DM 5,-- (5 IRC's) if you are a member, DM 10,-- if you are non-member and live in Europe (10 IRC's), DM 15,-- if you are a non-member and live in overseas. You can ask for the informations of the competition up to now. You'll also get a provisional participation-card from the ADDX. If you are a member of ADDX you can read all the things you have to know in the KURIER, if you are not member of ADDX we'll regulary send you all the informations to your written address. We'll send you your tasks for 1,-- DM (1IRC, if you are living in Europe, 2 IRC's if you are living overseas) for return postage. Please, write to: ADDX e.V., I. Int. DX-Championship, P.O. Box 15 01 24, D-4000 Düsseldorf, Fed. Rep. of Germany.

Gentlemen/

WLS is celebrating its 25th Anniversary in 1985. While we are supportive of ANARC and the member clubs, we do not qualify as a club, but are a station registry, similar to MONITOR DX HQ.

Frequently, some of your club members write to see if we are still in business. Since we are not listed in ANARC publications, it is difficult at times to get the mailing address out to the SWL population. Some time ago, you were kind enough to mention us in FRENEX and we would greatly appreciate it if you could do so this year.

For the balance of the year, until supply is exhausted, any SWL can receive a commemorative QSL for a #10 SASE. They should address inquiries to the above organizational mailing address.

Many thanks and 73,

FOR THE WLS NETWORK:

NOTICE

TO: Chicago-Area Shortwave Listeners
FR: Jeff White, General Manager
RE: Position Availability
DT: June 29, 1985

Radio Earth is looking for a Director of Marketing. We're searching for someone in the Chicago area who wants a challenging career in a pioneering field. Radio Earth is still a very small company, but we're anticipating rapid growth. On July 7th, we are beginning a new European Service. We expect to resume our North American Service very soon, and we are planning to establish our own shortwave transmission facility in the Caribbean next year. Radio Earth is recognized as the leader in commercial shortwave broadcasting, after only two years of operation.

Radio Earth's Director of Marketing must have a good general knowledge of shortwave listening and broadcasting. Helpful attributes (not requirements) would include: sales experience, broadcasting experience, basic technical knowledge, fluency in Spanish or other foreign languages. He or she should reside in the Chicago area in order to coordinate activities and meet regularly with our general manager and other Radio Earth personnel. The opportunity exists to become involved to a certain extent in other Radio Earth operations, such as programming, public relations and administration.

The Director of Marketing position will start out as a part-time occupation, and will likely expand to full-time within a few to several months, depending on success of marketing efforts. Initially, the Marketing Director could work out of his or her home and/or the Radio Earth office in Evanston. Position is not salaried. Pay consists of 15% commission on all direct sales, and 5% commission on sales made by other salespersons. However, the person hired for this position will be given and guaranteed all present Radio Earth advertising accounts and respective commissions.

Responsibilities of Radio Earth's Director of Marketing include:

- * Development and implementation of overall advertising and marketing goals, concepts and policies for Radio Earth.
- * Sales of commercial spot time -- preparation of potential client lists; direct mail and telephone sales efforts to potential clients nationwide and worldwide; personal meetings with potential Chicago-area clients.
- * Supervision of other Radio Earth sales representatives.
- * Maintaining accounts -- regular calls on advertisers; assisting advertisers in achieving their marketing objectives; writing and/or recording commercials; updating ad copy.
- * Preparation of sales materials (brochures, etc.)
- * Conducting audience research activities (such as surveys) to determine information about the shortwave audience in general and the Radio Earth audience in particular (both size and demographics), which will aid in sales efforts.
- * Development and implementation of promotional campaigns and promo materials.
- * Coordinating marketing activities with other operations of Radio Earth.

Anyone interested in applying for this position should contact Radio Earth General Manager Jeff White as soon as possible by mail or telephone to arrange an interview.

The Woodpecker Project

Coordinated by the Association of North American Radio Clubs'
Over-the-Horizon Radar Committee
1634 - 15th St. NW
Washington, DC 20009
U S A

Purpose: To gather current data on the worldwide interference caused to short-wave broadcasters and their audiences by the high-power pulse emission sources known colloquially as the "Woodpeckers". This data will be analysed and presented to telecommunications ministries of countries participating in the 1987 World Administrative Radio Conference for High-Frequency Broadcasting, in an effort to convince them to support a protocol statement condemning this interference.

Data needed: 1) In order to map the "Woodpeckers'" general band use, we need large numbers of volunteers to monitor parts of the spectrum between 5 and 23 MHz for 3-hour periods during October 1985. If each monitor covers 3 MHz, and at least 3 geographically-separated monitors are scheduled for each time- and band-segment, then at least 144 monitors are needed for 24-hour coverage. We would like to gather 5 days worth of data. That requires at least 720 volunteers. Attached to this sheet is a sign-up form. Please fill it out, indicating what times you can commit to monitoring. Return it without delay - in any event, before 15 August 1985. We especially need people able to monitor at unusual times (just before local dawn, for example). A sample of our monitoring report form is attached to this sheet. It is a simple graphic system requiring minimal effort to complete.

2) We also seek reports of specific instances of "Woodpecker" interference to stations operating in the shortwave broadcast bands. Reports should include the name of the affected station, its frequency, the date and time, duration and relative strength of the interference, the type of receiver, and your location. A sample report form is attached to this sheet. Reports not using this form are acceptable, too, so long as they contain the same information. Mail us your reports before 1 November 1985.

Recognizing "Woodpecker" signals: They're called "Woodpeckers" because that's what they sound like on a shortwave radio. Technically, the signal is a 3 milli-second square-wave pulse with a stable pulse-rate of 10/second. (Rates of 17 and 7.4/sec have also been heard, but rarely.) The signal is wide-band, with most of the energy concentrated in about 15 kHz, and a weaker "pulse-scope" filling the adjacent spectrum. The energy concentrations can be clustered together to cover 100 kHz or more. The "Woodpeckers" change frequency abruptly and often. Their "dwell time" varies from a few seconds to a few minutes.

Money: This project is organized and staffed entirely by unpaid volunteers. We need your help to pay for printing, postage, etc. To raise money we are selling T-shirts with our symbol (at top, right) printed in red and black, for $10 each postpaid in North America. Arrangements for foreign distribution are still being explored. When ordering, please specify size (S/M/L), and make checks payable to "The Woodpecker Project" in US currency.

Additional copies of this announcement are available for 1 uncancelled 1st-class US postage stamp + a US-stamped self-addressed envelope; or 3 IRCs. We also encourage you to photocopy and distribute these sheets yourself.

If you are willing to monitor for more than 3 hours, how many time-periods can you handle?: _____

We will try to schedule you according to your preferences, but we can accommodate only 48 monitors per time-slot, and other factors - like geographical distribution - must be considered, too. In general, our policy is "first come, first served", so don't delay! Send this completed form - along with a self-addressed US-stamped envelope, or 3 IRCs - to:

The Woodpecker Project
1634 - 15th St. NW
Washington, DC 20009 USA

We must hear from you by 15 August 1985. Time- and band-assignments will be mailed out 1 September 1985.

Feel free to photocopy and distribute these forms to other SW listeners.
