AN AIR WAR WITH CUBA - THE UNITED STATES RADIO CAMPAIGN AGAINST CASTRO

Daniel C. Walsh. Since 1985, Radio Marti, has broadcast American news and propaganda in Cuba. Its sister station, TV Marti, debuted in 1990. A respected operation at the start, Radio and TV Marti fell under the influence of the Cuban American National Foundation—a group of hard-line Cuban exiles—who intensified the anti-Castro rhetoric the station sent to the island and promoted its leaders as the heirs to a post-Castro Cuba. Though the initial goal of the two stations was to increase pro-American sentiment among the island-nation's citizens, the stations have only succeeded in driving the two nations further apart. This history of American propaganda broadcasting in Cuba describes how Castro used radio to obtain power; explores the impact of Radio and TV Marti on U.S.-Cuba relations, including the phenomenon of Cuban raters; and chronicles the domestic political struggles to keep the stations on the air. ©2011 McFarland 272 p. RADIO FREE EUROPE'S "CRUSADE FOR FREEDOM"

Richard H. Cummings. From 1950 to 1960, millions of Americans participated in Radio Free Europe's "Crusade for Freedom." They signed "Freedom Scrolls" and "Freedom Grams," attended Crusader meetings, marched in parades, launched leaflet-carrying balloons, and donated Tour Dollars in support of the American effort to broadcast news and other programming to the peoples of communist-governed European countries. The Crusade for Freedom proved to be a powerful tool of the state-private network's anticommunist agenda. This book takes an in-depth look at the Crusade for Freedom, revealing how its unmatched pageantry of patriotism led to the creation of a dynamic movement involving not only the government but also private industry, mass media, academia, religious leaders, and average Americans. ©2011 McFarland 272 p. COLD WAR RADIO

The Dangerous History of American Broadcasting in Europe, 1950-1989
Richard H. Cummings. During the Cold War, Radio Free Europe and Radio Liberty broadcast uncensored news and commentary to people living in communist nations. As critical elements of the CIA's early covert activities against communist regimes in Eastern Europe, the Munich-based stations drew a large audience despite efforts to jam the broadcasts and ban citizens from listening to them. This history of the stations in the Cold War era reveals the perils their staff faced from the Soviet Union, Bulgaria, Romania and other communist states. It recounts in detail the murder of writer Georgi Markov, the 1981 bombing of the stations by "Carlos the Jackal," infiltration by KGB agent Oleg Tumanov and other events. Appendices include security reports, letters between Carlos the Jackal and German terrorist Johannes Weinhich and other documents, many of which have never been published. ©2009 McFarland 309 p. On September 25th the club's electronic Flashsheet reached its 500th edition. Here is a brief history of the first 500 issues of the club's electronic Flashsheet. It started on December 15, 2001 with Sheryl Paszkiewicz sitting in the editor's chair for edition #1. Quoting from Sheryl's opening remarks: "Welcome to the First Edition of the NASWA Flash Sheet. It is very exciting to be part of NASWA's move into the electronic age and I never thought I would be editing such a column. However, I am one of the people who does not want to see the print version of the Journal die out." Some ten years later, the print Journal is as strong as ever with the club advancing into the electronic age through the electronic Flashsheet, the Yahoo Group under Dan Ferguson's leadership and our Facebook page under Richard Murphy's leadership.

A host of editors and contributors have made this possible; a real team effort. Sheryl continued as editor for the first 145 issues with her final Flashsheet being issued on November 7, 2004. Commencing with issue #146, Ray Bauernhuber became the new Flashsheet editor. With issue #247 on October 22, 2006, Mark Taylor became the new editor of the Flashsheet. Mark had stepped in for Ray as substitute editor for a number of issues before taking the editorial reigns. Ray passed away a short time thereafter. I have had the pleasure of distributing the Flashsheet and maintaining its distribution list and periodically stepping into the editor's chair.

It has been a fun ride. Thanks to Mark Taylor, our current editor, for keeping things going. Thanks to our eager editorial team and contributing members I hope the Flashsheet gets to enjoy many more anniversaries.

NASWA's Ron Hunsicker and Reading Area DXer dinner companion sent along a copy of the American Radio Relay League (ARRL) Spectrum Defense Matters quarterly newsletter. The September edition contains an article about the United States proposal for the 2012 World Radiocommunications Conference (WRC-12) to allocate 5,250 to 5,450 kHz to the radiolocation service to accommodate high frequency (HF) oceanographic radars (the WRC-12 agenda calls for considering possible allocations in the range of 3-50 MHz to oceanographic radar applications). HF Oceanographic Radar is utilized to map ocean surfaces and currents to detect anomalies that may be indicative of disasters or tsunamis. Development began in the 1970's with Coastal Ocean Dynamics Applications Radar (CODAR) manufacturer becoming dominant. Naturally, the ARRL is most concerned about the 60 meter amateur band but the use of CODAR does impact shortwave listeners. The newsletter discusses a recent interference case involving Rutgers University where tests reveal an interference pattern with the West Coast being able to hear the East Coast CODAR signals depending upon propagation. The ARRL reported that the Rutgers team moved the transmitter outside the amateur band to 4.9 MHz to continue their research. Hum... that would be right in the middle of the tropical bands. I guess shortwave listeners need to watch the ARRL too, hi!

Harry Scott, Deputy Director of Program and Operations Support at Radio Free Asia, mentioned recently that Radio Free Asia (RFA) released its 40th QSL card and its 5th QSL card commemorating 2011 as RFA's 15th anniversary. RFA's first broadcast was in Mandarin Chinese on September 29, 1996 at 2100 UTC. Acting as a substitute for indigenous free media, RFA concentrates its coverage on events occurring in and/or affecting the countries to which we broadcast. Those countries are: Burma, Cambodia, Laos, North Korea, Peoples Republic of China, and Vietnam. This QSL card was used to confirm all valid reception reports for October 2011 but may still be in use. If not, a similar design celebrating the occasion will continue monthly between now and the end of the year. To learn more about RFA's anniversary, visit www.rfa15.org. Reception reports are also accepted by email at qsl@rfa.org, and for anyone without Internet access, reception reports can be mailed to: Reception Reports, Radio Free Asia, 2025 M. Street NW, Suite 300, Washington DC 20036. Upon request, RFA will also send a copy of the current broadcast schedule and a station sticker.

After 55 years in Denmark, the Danish Shortwave Club International decided to hold its next Annual General Meeting (AGM) in a youth hostel in Sachsen-Anhalt between Berlin and Leipzig at Friedrichsee in Naturpark Dübener Heide 25 kilometers east of Dessau in Germany on the weekend of 1-3 June 2012. It will be organized by member Bernhard Hein with further details to follow. An important consideration was the location being good for DXing which is a big part of the AGM.

Joerg Klingenfuss, Klingenfuss Publications, Hagenloher Str. 14, 72070 Tuebingen, Germany (www.klingenfuss.org and info@klingenfuss.org) announces new Klingenfuss products for 2012: (a) 2012 Super Frequency List on CD, (b) 2012 Shortwave Frequency Guide, (c) 2012 Frequency Database for the Perseus LF-HF Software-Defined Receiver and (d) Supplement January 2012 to the 2011/2012 Guide to Utility Radio Stations to be published on 10 December 2011. Full-resolution title page graphics can be found at www.klingenfuss.org/r_2012.jpg and www.klingenfuss.org/s_2012.gif. The printed Supplement will be attached free to all copies of the 2011/2012 Guide to Utility Radio Stations sold after 1 January 2012. Those customers that did acquire the 2011/2012 Guide to Utility Radio Stations before that date may download the pertinent .PDF file free from our website, after 1 January 2012. After more than five years of doom and gloom, solar activity finally resumed in 2011. According to Joerg: "Currently we have sunspot numbers around 100 peaking 170 in September, resulting in excellent HF propagation conditions and long-distance communication. At this moment, solar activity remains very high. New HF e-mail services, stations, networks and frequencies continue to emerge on a regular basis. HF e-mail booms and service providers continue to expand. No other publisher considers this revolutionary development accordingly." I didn't receive new pricing information, however, Universal Radio in Reynoldsburg, Ohio usually distributes numerous Klingenfuss Publications so please check with them.

Please remember to direct all communications about subscriptions, bulletin delivery issues, Thanksgiving holiday menu suggestions, the use of PayPal as a payment method, etc. to Bill Oliver at the club's Levittown address or to his new electronic address, billoliver@verizon.net. The regular postal address is the familiar 45 Wildflower Road, Levittown, PA 19057. Inquires sent to Wyoming only slow down the process. Thanks!

That's it for this month. Enjoy this month's edition of the Journal; it's another good one.

FRENDX: Twenty-Five Years Ago (November 1986)

The Frendx cover featured a picture of NASWA member Gerry L. Dexter who was selected as the 1986 ANARC North American DXer of the Year. Tiare Publications was offering the 500+ page Shortwave Radio Listening with the Experts edited by Gerry Dexter featuring articles written by Larry Magne, Don Jensen, Dr. Richard Wood, Dr. John Campbell, Mike Nikolich, Ralph Perry Fred Osterman, Jerry Berg, John Herkimer, Dr. Bruce Elving and Roger Legge for $22.05 plus $2.00 shipping. In Technical Topics, editor Skip Arey discussed active antennas. Tom McElvy's first Computer Corner column appeared. Awards Program Manager John Kapinos announced several new award recipients among them were David Jones (Maple Leaf DXer), Steven Lare (Senior DX Centurian and South American DXer) and Richard E. Davis (Tropical Band DXer). Marlin Field wrote about "Jorge Zambrano of HCJB" and Jay Golden wrote about "An Active Antenna for 90 Meters". Editor Sam Barto noted in QSL Report that this month's three page column was "probably the shortest QSL Column I've ever typed." Gilfer Associates was offering their annual pre-publication offer for the World Radio TV Handbook for $15.95 plus $2.00 shipping for a $4.00 savings.

I would like to give a great thanks to all the dedicated NASWA people who produce both the printed Journal and the Flashsheet. I read the Journal cover to cover when it arrives and the Flashsheet is extremely useful when monitoring as a tie-breaker that reduces uncertainty when identifying what could be one of several stations on the same frequency. It helps me look for clues to clinch the station ID.

My listening and logging is intermittent at best and my antenna situation here is atrocious. Hopefully I can fix the antenna problem by the end of the year if I can convince the local powers that be that simple wire outdoor antennas are nearly invisible and will not cause anyone any grief. Unfortunately we have CC&Rs that mention radio antennas specifically, as in there shall be none.

I've been a member of NASWA for more years than I can remember. I thought it was time to express my thanks for all the hard work that many of the NASWA volunteers do to give those of us in the woodwork a very good monthly publication and a weekly electronic compendium of loggings. So, to all - thanks.

Sam Barto, 78 Blakeman Road, Thomaston, CT 06787

I've sent out about two dozen shortwave reports in the past three months. The only one which came back is the one I expected to get a reply from - Radio Verdad. The rest I'm still waiting. The AM and FM replies have been fairly consistent at about a 25% return rate.

Richard A. D'Angelo <rdangelo3@aol.com>, 2216 Burkey Drive, Wyomissing, PA 19610

The rain the northeast experienced in September has made for some interesting Reading Area DX'er meetings at The Flying Dog. The August meeting saw me traveling to Queens to pick up my mother-in-law who resides in a mandatory evacuation zone for Hurricane Irene. It was a toss up but I skipped the club gathering, hi! Rain continued through much of September with another 2 inches of liquid descending upon the local roads for our September meeting. I made this one but just about all of us experienced some sort of detour on the way home doubling the usual travel commitment. During the meeting, Dave Turnick shared an interesting article that appeared in Wired magazine about shortwave radio station UVB-76 on 4,625 kHz from Russia which has developed a cult-like following. It was a great meeting nevertheless so the rain did not dampen that aspect of our gathering.

Things are still pretty slow on the QSL front. I am not sending out many reports therefore it makes sense not to get too many replies back, hi! I am still enjoying the last of the good weather with as much outdoor activity as possible while it lasts. Our first French Creek DXpedition is on the horizon so that will commence the indoors season of listening activity for me.

Only a couple of veries this month as the slow days of verifications continues at this location. Here is what I have available for this month. Radio Dardasha 7 via Wertachtal verified with a time/frequency letter from "Dardasha Staff" including a book mark ("Word of Hope Arabic Ministry") and religious pamphlet. Postal address: Radio Dardasha 7, P. O. Box 991, Larnaca, Cyprus. XFM Shortwave verified after my report to them: "Excellent, good to hear from you again! I plan to get QSLs out this weekend. Redhat, X-FM Shortwave." Unfortunately, that didn't happen but I am hopeful something will arrive soon!

Commander Bunny of WBNY sent a strange but interesting package of goodies postmarked from Lansing, Michigan. The package consisted of two blank QSL cards. The first was "WBNY & Commander Bunny Presents!" A 3-ring circus QSL attacking The Poet of The Crystal Ship noting that "WBNY is Real Pirate Radio". The second card "Pirate Radio's biggest cry-baby!" also attacking The Crystal Ship. Also, included were two refrigerator magnets featuring the QSL design; one was the same size as the card and the other was business card size. Rounding out this bizarre package of goodies was a business card of the later QSL card design. The Commander Bunny / The Poet pirate war continues to rage on. However, I have begun to notice an increase in pirate radio activity leading up to Halloween. Maybe this is a good sign that things are beginning to return to "normal" for pirate radio enthusiasts.

Deutsche Welle scales back both shortwave usage and English programming

Deutsche Welle has already mentioned they were diminishing the use of shortwave overall, with English services to Africa and Asia among the few remaining services to use shortwave. One of the consequences of this scaling back is the closing of the Sines, Portugal and Trincomalee, Sri Lanka relay sites as of the end of October.

However, even the remaining English language services are being cut back in length. Since the 1980s DW has had daily newsmagazines that provided a valuable perspective on global current affairs, balancing a continental perspective to that of the BBC World Service as well as USA domestic perspectives. In the 1980s I remember European Journal and Transatlantic Diary; in the past few years the program has been called Newslink or, for North America, Newslink Plus — a longer version. With the B-11 seasonal schedule changes, Newslink and Newslink Plus are both gone.

Here's the programming that will still remain on air as of the end of October, courtesy of Jerry Lenamon who posted this information to the ODXA E-group:

World Newscasts (5 minutes); 6 per day (down from 24)

Magazines:

Spectrum (30 minutes, aired Mondays)
Pulse (30 minutes, aired Tuesdays)
World In Progress (30, aired Wednesdays)
Living Planet (30 minutes, aired Thursdays)
Inside Europe (30 minutes, aired Fridays but produced Thursdays)
Inside Europe (59 minutes, aired Sundays but also produced Thursdays)

Added to the Saturday schedule will be a new 55-minute program, WorldLink, produced on Fridays.

Here are the programs that will be cancelled:

Newslink, Newslink Plus, European Business Week, Arts on the Air, Inspired Minds, Living in Germany, In-box, Sport Report, Correspondence Report

Exactly how this will work isn't clear — the newscasts still will apparently air at the top of the hour, but the satellite schedule published for the B-11 season shows no satellite usage from :05 to :30 most hours. Will they air fill music for the 25 minutes after the news to the bottom of the hour? Or will the shortwave sessions be just 35 minutes in length? As of right now, there is nothing published on the matter.

For those who "consume" their Deutsche Welle on-demand, what becomes important is when the material is made available for downloading / podcast; the list above includes the production timetable, which should be the timing for new editions of DW programs to be posted to the website.

Monocle/24: The next BBC World Service?

I get news alerts that have the text "BBC World Service" in them, and one caught my eye last week from a British magazine called Monocle that announced a new Internet-based audio service that hopes to capture the kind of audience that appreciates the BBC World Service. What's interesting is that Monocle hired some ex-World Service news readers who were recently terminated as part of the ongoing cost cuts there. Jonathan Wheatley and Nick Kelly are among the names on Monocle/24 that I recognize from the World Service.

Monocle's founder and editor, Tyler Brülé, opines that "From the point of view of its ambitions for global reach and coverage of world affairs, Monocle 24 will probably resemble and sound like many commonwealth public service broadcasters, including BBC World Service, as well as shades of ABC and Canada's CBC. We are hoping to create a station which follows the tradition of the great Commonwealth broadcasters. It's no surprise that we have drawn a lot of great people from the BBC World Service."

Monocle/24 consists of a mix of daily current affairs magazines, weekly feature programs, and a "Global Music" mix that ranges "...from Classic Bossa to j-Pop to the latest remixes from Berlin...".

The daily programs include The Globalist at 0500 UT weekdays, an early-morning look at global matters; The Briefing, at 1100 weekdays, an hour-long mix of news, debate, comment, and banter; Midori House at 1700 weekdays, originating from Monocle's global headquarters; The Monocle Daily, at 2100 weekdays, an evening news program that features the unfolding day in the USA and a look to the coming day in Asia. A cautionary note — these times might have shifted forward one hour with the seasonal end of Summer Time in the UK.

Weekly programs include The Entrepreneurs, putting a spotlight on those driving innovation in their industries; Section D, a program looking at design, architecture, fashion, and graphics; The Urbanist, a look at people and ideas shaping urban lives; The Menu, about food and drink; The Review, a Saturday program that looks back at the books, TV shows, films and events of the week, with a heavy dose of retail; Culture, an international digest of music, art, film, and media; The Monocle Weekly, the weekly two-hour Sunday review program that has been part of the magazine's multimedia offering before the launch of the Monocle/24 channel, and, lastly, The Curator, a weekly "best of" series that features interviews and stories from the prior week.

There is an hourly three-minute newscast that appears to be updated throughout the day; interestingly, each edition starts with an announcement of relevant world times (though not UTC).

My take? What's first a bit unusual is that this is a commercial enterprise — so there are occasional advertisements that are unobtrusively inserted before and after program segments. The advertisers are those who might have appeared, in times past, in one of the BBC's expat publications such as BBC On Air — banks, Rolex, a high-end shoe company. The programming itself is ambitious, and — to its credit — is more leisurely-paced than a dry news-oriented program. The Monocle magazine appears to be targeting the same lifestyle audience that Esquire might, but with a more globalist perspective. The magazine has been described as a "...meeting between Foreign Policy and Vanity Fair." That might be descriptive of the World Service's expat audience, but it remains to be seen how this will appeal to others.

Don't try to find Monocle/24 on your shortwave radio — the service is crafted expressly for Internet delivery; with a web-based service capable of playing their live stream or on-demand programming, or downloading programming to an MP3 player. Monocle is also promoting a customized Revo Heritage G2 Wifi radio, designed for the UK, with DAB, DAB+, FM, an iPhone/iPod dock, general Wifi coverage, and a dedicated button for Monocle/24. It's to arrive in Monocle's web shop on November 14th for £300 (ouch!); that tidy sum gets you a brushed aluminum and American walnut veneer cabinet. An iPhone/iPod/iPad app is slated to be launched on November 1st.

Why Spy!

by Steven Handler

Copyright 2011 by Steven Handler

On the fringes of the shortwave broadcast- ing lurk the infamous Spy Number stations. These modern miracles of technology ply the shortwave bands, sending their streams of numbers to secret agents around the world.

This morning my target of intrigue was the Cuban Intelligence Agency, Dirección General de Inteligencia (DGI). They have a regular broadcast to their agents each Wednesday commencing at 1000 GMT and lasting for 42 minutes on 9240 kHz. In the past I have tuned in to their broadcast while they were in progress at 1030 GMT. However, today I decided I wanted to also hear their sign on.

On this last day in August, I woke up at an uncivilized 4:59 AM (0959 GMT). I positioned myself at my trusty shortwave receiver, turned it on, and was greeted with the strong (S-9) carrier of my target. I waited for the audio to start at 1000 GMT. At 1001 the audio still had not begun. So I waited, and waited, and waited some more. In fact, I listened until 1050 GMT when without a peep of audio being broadcast their carrier shut down. Fifty minutes of dead air!

At first I thought today might be some sort of spy holiday. But if that were the case, why turn the transmitter on and have the carrier broadcast for fifty minutes? Then it occurred to me. Someone at the spy central in Cuba was asleep at the switch and failed to plug in the audio feed! Nice going! Around the United States, Cuban spies were at the ready, pens in hand waiting to copy down the secret message. And they too were greeted with silence. No message to decode, to secrets to gather, no spy tasks to complete. A heck of a way to run a spy agency.

In the days of old, during the Cold War, a technician making this kind of mistake would be escorted to the nearest wall and provided with a couple of shots, and they wouldn't be rum. During the Cold War Cuban Intelligence was at the top of their game running agents around the world. But the Cold War is long gone, and it appears that some of their mastery of spy craft may have waned. I have read reports from others that bits and pieces of Radio Habana Cuba's broadcasts have been heard on Cuban Intelligence frequencies used to broadcast numbers transmissions. Not exactly the best covert operating technique. In addition, in a court case here in America, Cuban intel- lligence was exposed as the source of Span- ish language number stations used to pass messages to their agents.

I have no doubt that beside myself, US Counter-Intelligence agents monitoring Cuban spy broadcasts also heard today's 50 minutes of dead air. We can hope they were careful on how they enter this event in their log books. After all, the entry "Sound of Silence" might cause an international flap with senior government officials wondering why the Cuban's were broadcasting Simon and Garfunkel.

Well, I am now both sleepy and hungry so I am headed to the kitchen for breakfast. The Cuban spy numbers station killed almost an hour of my time but provided me with the fodder for this article. It might not be up to the normal James Bond adventure standards, but I guess I shall log today's adventure as "Dr. No Show".

The 'Haunted' Past Of Radio Ceylon

by Chamari Senanayake

(Sunday Observer, 10 July 2011, via Alokesh Gupta, VU3BSE, New Delhi via Worldwide DX Club's "DX Magazine")

Walking into the Sri Lanka Broadcasting Corporation (SLBC) buildings at Torrington Square, one would immediately feel the historical value of the place, but most people would not know just how valuable it is. Our SLBC is Asia's first broadcasting corporation. Radio Ceylon started in Sri Lanka then Ceylon, paving the way for many other radio stations that later came to be celebrated around the world, inspiring countries such as Hong Kong, Korea, India and Singapore to enter the world of wireless media.

DG of SLBC Samantha Weliveriya said that there was even speculation that the SLBC is the world's second radio station. Even if such speculation is not true, he said it is an indication of the importance of Radio Ceylon in the world arena. Radio Ceylon definitely becomes the 30th station in the world, in a line dominated by mostly American and British radio stations, bringing immense pride to Sri Lanka.

And that's not all, there is a hidden past behind the place now occupied by the radio station. According to Chairman Hudson Samarasinghe, who joined the SLBC many decades ago, and has been there ever since, the area was used as a runway during World War II.

The racecourse next to Radio Ceylon was used by the military and some parts of the Radio Ceylon grounds were frequently used for aviation activities which made it difficult to carry out broadcasting functions. Another interesting historical fact is that Radio Ceylon's broadcasting activities were taken over by Allied Forces during World War II and when the war was over, it was handed back to the government.

History began with the arrival of Edward Harper during the time of Sir William Henry Manning. He was the chief engineer of the Telegraph Department and soon began working on wireless broadcasts. The very first experimental broadcast hit the airwaves as early as 1923. Not many people know this fact and believe that the first experimental broadcast was actually made in 1924, but the world had heard us a year earlier from the Telegraph Department, just three years after the inauguration of broadcasting in Europe. Harper and his assistants had broadcast gramophone music as an experiment using radio equipment from a captured German submarine.

Broadcasting heights

The actual launch of Radio Ceylon was in December 1925 by Sir Hugh Clifford. The station came into being after the war and reached broadcasting heights in South Asia, leading the way in the world of entertainment and news. The very first senior management officers of the station came from the British Broadcasting Corporation (BBC). They worked tirelessly to make Radio Ceylon world-recognised, and it indeed was then.

They even did a live coverage of the moon landing and used to cover all major cricket matches before Rupavahini launched its live sports telecasts. Talking about his Western inspirations and knowledge, Salman Rushdie had once said, "I have to express my deep gratitude to what was then called Radio Ceylon. It had a slightly more open attitude and did play Western music, so that's where I became familiar with all kinds of things that I could slightly regret, like the complete works of Ricky Nelson."

Going back to the hidden and interesting past behind the place now known as SLBC, one could not help but mention the word 'haunted'. The old buildings there are over 150 years old and once was home to a lunatic asylum. Standing proud and beautiful even today are the straight and long corridors created especially for the use of a hospital. These corridors have seen many old-fashioned trolleys, mobile beds and other hospital equipment being pushed along by attendants and nurses.

They create a labyrinth inside the institution and even the people most familiar with the place could easily get lost. Some say that staff that work in the evenings and nights have heard peculiar sounds in the dark and isolated corners. Although these are mostly hearsay and speculation, the history behind the place is quite fascinating and could create credible grounds for such stories.

Asylum proper The Colombo Lunatic Asylum was the first mental hospital in Sri Lanka and was built on the grounds that are now used by the SLBC. Most of its records run as far as 1850, but the very first buildings could have been built many years or decades before that.

It was divided into the asylum proper and the house of observation. Usually, about 700 patients were treated each year at the beginning of the 1900s. Even during the 19th century, in any given year, the number of patients treated always stood above 500.

There was one recorded escape in 1905, but the escapee was later found and brought back. Around the same time there was one attempted suicide. During the first decade of the 20th century, a separate dining hall for females and a dispensary were built. Work on a new mental lunatic asylum began in 1920 at Angoda.

From the beginning, the Colombo Lunatic Asylum was overcrowded and the accommodation provided was inadequate. It was the only mental facility in the country and the superintendent could not turn people away and had to take all patients that came in.

The mortality rate was high and remained above 50 each year. Almost all deaths were due to TB and some were due to malaria. Over 300,000 people are believed to have died of malaria around the 1930s in Sri Lanka.

Torrington Square, Colombo 7, Colombo 5 and the surrounding areas were bushland then, and were known as Kumbi Kele (ant forest) and the asylum grounds were quite large. Therefore, a corner of the land was also used as the hospital's cemetery for bodies that were not claimed by families.

The hospital had a large mortuary; this room is still there but remains closed. Berty Galahitiyawa, a veteran announcer joined the SLBC in 1962, and retired as Director-Training. He recalls the cafeteria in the '60s which was near the mortuary, and some of his friends talking about hearing strange sounds emanating from it while they were having their tea breaks during the evening's broadcast. "We did not believe it, but we knew there was a closed-down mortuary adjacent to the cafeteria. Later on, many studios were built around it" he said.

Eerily silent

Ironically, there is a cafeteria there even today.

Frederick Fiebig was originally an artiste and lithographer in Calcutta in the 1840s. When he visited Sri Lanka in 1852 he had taken a black and white picture of the SLBC which was later hand-coloured.

Even today, its long corridors are eerily silent with memories of the past, not merely because of the way it was built for patient transport.

There are framed photographs of legends in broadcasting and other important figures that were associated with the place. Sunil Shantha, Rukmani Devi, Ananda Samarakoon and Premakeerthi de Alwis are some of those who are no more.

In 1954, when Queen Elizabeth II visited Sri Lanka, a Radio Ceylon van equipped with a disc-cutting machine was sent along with her to record the important events.

An interesting fact about Radio Ceylon is that after conquering Mount Everest, Edmond Hillary and Tenzing Norgay turned on their transistor radio and the first thing they heard was an overseas broadcast on the English All Asia service of Radio Ceylon.

The place now known as SLBC, most fondly remembered as 'Radio Ceylon' is a legend of its own with a colourful, eerie and romantic past.

DXing Vietnam Style

Or, How to Listen and Coexist with Snakes, Tree Lizards, Tarantulas, Centipedes and Other Creepy Crawlers

By Sam Barto

Never mind Charlie, the insects, animals and reptiles concerned me more than anything else when I served in Vietnam for almost the entire year in 1970. Don't get me wrong. I thoroughly enjoyed my tour of duty.

I graduated from college with a degree in Cartography and Geography and a minor in Sociology. My Master's Program was concentrated in South and Southeast Asian Studies. Additionally, I had seven years of French in high school and college. I still can't speak a word of it but I thought it would be helpful especially since French was Vietnam's second language.

About four months prior to leaving Vietnam, my new company commander called me into his office. He was reviewing personal files and asked me with my education and fields of study especially with respect to my masters work how the Army didn't send me to Officer's Candidate School. He offered to make me a Second Lieutenant on the spot. All I had to do was to sign up for an additional two years. I respectfully declined telling him that my wife was pregnant and I wanted to get home to her. He understood.

The country was absolutely beautiful and, for the most part, the inhabitants were very friendly and courteous. I left Connecticut in the first week of January of 1970. I returned in mid-December of that year. Didn't miss Santa Claus or any New Year's parties at all.

My journey brought me from home to Fort Dix in New Jersey, Fort Jackson in South Carolina, Fort Leonard Wood in Missouri, two weeks back home and then off to Oakland, California, Anchorage, Alaska, Guam and Saigon. I actually had a small portable radio and did a little DXing on the AM and FM bands in each of those locations.

After landing near Saigon I was transferred to the 687th Land Clearing Company in the central highlands. I drove a D7E bulldozer with a large stinger blade on the front. My responsibility was to knock down trees, some in excess of 100 feet tall and 6 feet in diameter, for fire zones and to provide security for local farmers and travelers.

After about a month of trees hitting the cap of the dozer, it was impossible to repair and weld them. Most of the dozers in my company operated without safety caps. We had to be real good at what we did or I wouldn't be writing this article. I was listening to Radio Hanoi's English broadcast one evening and Hanoi Jane actually referred to my unit as the "traveling circus" since most of the dozers rattled and rolled as they went from one place to another.

We were in the field in one man tents for my entire tour. This afforded me the opportunity to DX without disturbing anyone else. The only light we were able to use at night was the illuminated dial on the radio. I had bought a Toshiba portable AM, FM and shortwave receiver at the PX before traveling to the boonies.

The security was really top notch. The local mountain people were great but the Koreans were absolutely the best. The ARVAN (South Vietnamese) were terrible because we knew that half of them were VC. Some would disappear in the evening and come back the following morning. I could only imagine what they were doing at night.

Sorry to say but I came back one evening after a day in the field and my radio was missing. I told my commander. He told the Korean commander. A thorough search was made and the radio was found in a foot locker belonging to one of the Korean soldiers. The Korean commander stood this soldier up in front of his entire company and shot him in the head. The Koreans are very proud and didn't want any thieves in the ranks. If I knew this was going to be the outcome I would of waited to the next PX and purchased a new receiver. Unfortunate, but it did happen.

Charlie never bothered us. Besides clearing the sides of roadways, we were also constructing their highway system. The highway known as Vietnam 1 was one of the best paved roads I have ever driven on. If the VC knew that they were eventually going to take over the country why not let us continue unabated in our work. Makes perfect sense to me.

Before I get into the DX, I guess I should explain a little about the title of this article. The same insects you saw in the Indiana Jones Temple of Doom movie were all in Nam. The centipedes were about a foot long and as thick as your thumb. They were reddish and brown colored and would crawl into your sleeping bag at night. When you got up in the morning they would run down your arms and legs and take off. What a weird feeling!

The tarantula's were the same color and as big as your fist. We used to throw caterpillars the size of your fingers at them and watch the tarantulas dissect them. You try anything when you are bored.

One morning I picked up a stick to stir a cup of coffee and wings came out and my coffee stirrer flew away! It was a walking stick. The tree lizards looked like little alligators. They were about 3 feet long and hung by their tails from tree limbs. I won't even discuss the little green snakes know as a "step and a half". If one bit you guess how much longer you had to live? Monkeys and water buffalos were all over the place.

I ran over a python with my dozer one day. The Vietnamese soldiers came running over to get it. They cooked it with small red peppers and something that looked like spinach. I tried it and guess what - it tasted like chicken. What else? The dog grinder wasn't too bad but I never found out what breed it was. The scorpions were red and black and usually stayed about an inch below the surface. I hate those things.

Besides all of these distractions the DX was phenomenal. Local US Armed Forces Radio Networks in Taiwan, Japan, Thailand and Vietnam were all logged and verified. Some of my best were Australian Forces Radio on 1030 from Vung Tau, the Far East Network from Tokyo on 810 and, of course, the VOA Hue outlet on 760. Radio Ceylon was consistently in on 700. A total of 97 AM stations from China were logged and verified.

Hong Kong on 545 (ZBV) and 640 (ZEK) were also in like locals. A total of 7 Indian stations were logged and verified including the most powerful VUC 1130 from Calcutta. Radio Jordan was in most of the time on 800 as was RV9 Radio Frunze on 611. Several Laotian stations were verified with their respective shortwave outlets.

Over a hundred Malaysian QSLs came from the AM and shortwave bands. Manchuria and North Korea also made appearances. A total of 26 different stations from the Philippines were verified. I can still remember DZME 1540 with their nightly English broadcasts. HLKX 1190 from Korea was in nightly as was the VOA from the Ryukyu Islands on 1178 along with their shortwave transmissions.

Stations from Sarawak, Sabah and Singapore made their presence known. All of the local Vietnamese stations were verified along with 17 stations from Taiwan including the Armed Forces Networks on 1560, 1580, and 1590. More than 33 different stations from Thailand were verified with such exotic call letters as HS1CC (1540), HS3RH (1460) and HSAAA - the AAA Division Broadcasting Station from Bangkok on 600. The VOA outlet from Ban Phachi, Thailand on 1580 was in all day.

For any of you who may be wondering the mailing costs for Armed Forces members was free. I mailed many hundreds of shortwave reports while in country but held off until I got home for my reports to North Vietnam - for obvious reasons.

I will end this with a little known story about my service in Vietnam. In all of the documentaries on TV about the war I guarantee you have never heard this one. We left ammunition for the enemy. At one time we had a South Vietnamese tank company for security. As we pulled out of the area my company commander ordered myself and another individual to construct a berm around a very large pile of ammo boxes.

We were in the middle of nowhere. The jungle canopy was so thick you couldn't see 5 feet in front of you. After constructing the berm we drove away. I looked back and the VC were coming out of the jungle and carrying off the ammo boxes. Maybe that's another reason they left us alone. DXing, it's an adventure.

International Broadcasting

A new mission statement for US international broadcasting.

"Mahogany Row" in the VOA headquarters building is the corridor on the third floor where the senior executives of the Broadcasting Board of Governors, International Broadcasting Bureau, and Voice of America sit. At the entrance to that corridor was, until recently, the outgoing mission statement of the BBG: "To promote freedom and democracy and to enhance understanding through multimedia communication of accurate, objective, and balanced news, information, and other programming about America and the world to audiences overseas."

Some of us think that mission statement buries the lead. It's the accurate, balanced, and objective that is most important. This would be my rewrite: "To provide accurate, objective, and balanced news, information, and other programming about America and the world to audiences overseas. Reliable information is essential to the development and maintenance of freedom and democracy."

The trouble with that rewrite is that the members of Congress who fund US international broadcasting are keen on the "promote freedom and democracy" thing, but they don't quite understand why the taxpayers should pay for a station that just transmits accurate, objective, and balanced news. British MPs seem to understand the concept re the BBC World Service, but it's a bit abstruse for U.S. legislators.

The new mission statement is: "To inform, engage, and connect world audiences in support of freedom and democracy." Congress might like it, but I don't think this new mission statement will reassure the audience about the credibility of US international broadcasting, because it gets too quickly to the ulterior motive, noble though it may be. The audience for international broadcasting also has a mission, and this might be its statement: "To receive news that is more accurate and reliable than the news I receive from my state-controlled domestic media."

BBG chairman: If USIB news coverage is not "in line with U.S. policy, it doesn't matter. We cover it." "We have to be credible, informative and accurate. That's core to our values," Isaacson said in an interview. "With the democracy movement now sweeping the Middle East, these values are incredibly closely aligned." Added Isaacson: "And if there ever were a case in which coverage of an event might not seem in line with U.S. policy, it doesn't matter. We cover it." Such an aggressive, news-focused approach could get Isaacson in trouble on Capitol Hill, where some lawmakers have criticized Alhurra for broadcasting interviews with the leaders of Hezbollah and Hamas — groups the United States has branded as terrorist organizations. On top of such editorial disputes, Isaacson faces other hurdles in Congress. He's likely to feel some push-back on his plan to streamline the broadcasting networks, especially if such moves cut into the broadcasts of Radio Marti's Cuba service and VOA's Chinese-language broadcasts, both sacred cows for some lawmakers. And he'll have to fend off deficit hawks seeking to cut the board's annual budget.... Isaacson is aware of the challenges and says he's ready to take them on. "These are battles I'm not afraid to have," he said. Some of these battles will take place as the House and Senate consider the fiscal 2012 State Department and foreign operations authorization and appropriations bills, which are due to move this fall in both chambers." (CQ Weekly, Jonathan Broder.)

BBG and IBB combine to form the International Bureau of Broadcasting Governors. Well, not really. Kim: The Broadcasting Board of Governors has released a chart showing the reorganization of the administration of US international broadcasting. The main feature of the reorganization is the merger of the staffs of the BBG and the International Broadcasting Bureau. USIB now enters a situation in which the IBB director, a political appointee selected by the president with Senate consent, becomes the senior executive of a board that is supposed to provide the insulation ("firewall") between the government and the entities of US international broadcasting.

This will not be a problem under the present IBB director, Richard Lobo. But what if a future IBB director is especially partisan and wants USIB to provide strong support for the policies of his/her administration? Somewhere it is stipulated that the IBB director will be concerned only with administrative matters, and not with content. (Hence the dotted lines between the IBB director and the entities.) Will that stipulation hold? Or will a future IBB director withhold administrative or engineering support from an entity or language service with whose content he/she is displeased?

Ideally, US international broadcasting should consist of one corporation, with one board, one layer of senior management, and one "entity." The only political appointees should be the members of the bipartisan board.

As confessed in my website's disclaimer, my day job is in the International Broadcasting Bureau. Where am I after the reorganization? I'm hiding under my desk.

Deutsche Welle proposes partnership with Wartburg College (Iowa) and may offer internships at its Washington studio.

"Wartburg College [in Waverly, Iowa] has been emphasizing its German roots in recent years, and Tuesday the Waverly school had a German media leader on campus preaching that enhanced understanding. Erik Betermann, director general of international broadcasting conglomerate Deutsche Welle, based in Bonn, met with Wartburg leaders and students to stress that international connection.... He also hinted that the connection could take on a more concrete component, through possible internships and advanced study for Wartburg students who graduate from the school's mass media program and are interested in enhancing that background with some international experience.... Deutsche Welle also may consider an internship program at its Washington, D.C., studio for students who want an international background without leaving the U.S." (WCFCourier.com) Kim: Interested in an internship with DW? Oh, actually, this being NASWA, you're probably too old for a college internsp. So maybe your children would be interested? Well, actually, this being NASWA, your children are probably beyond their college years. How about your grandchildren?

BBC World Service offers last tour of Bush House before move to Broadcasting House.

"Bush House, the building in central London that's been the home of the BBC World Service for the past seven decades, is opening its doors to the public for the last time. Hundreds of people have been queueing to visit the studios and art deco entrance hall. From next year, World Service programmes and bulletins will come from Broadcasting House - also in London." (RTHK Hong Kong.)

"An encouraging weekend turnout might keep the National Voice of America Museum of Broadcasting open to the public more frequently, at least for occasional tours, while the building undergoes more renovation. Closed for two years, the VOA Museum was open for three hours Saturday for tours, and about 100 people showed up. It will close again soon for more outside renovation and a new roof. ... One of Saturday's tour guides, Clyde Haehnle, was a project engineer at the Voice of America Bethany Relay Station and was involved with the project when it was built in 1944 under the direction of Powell Crosley Jr." (Cincinnati Enquirer, Adam Kiefaber.) AFGHANISTAN. 6102, Radio Afghanistan, 1518+, September 22. Tentative reception. I was tuning the radio, getting ready for their listed sign-on at 1530 (or 1527), but there's already someone there weakly with talk in ? language. Almost certainly them, as the music is typical for the region, and who else would be on 6102? A female is heard just after 1530, but just too weak to make anything else out of the transmission. I'm not aware of any other North American loggings, so far, but as the days get shorter, it may become possible. Now at 1531:30, a male is speaking. [There have been reports of their turning on the transmitter early, with domestic service audio --- gh] 1510+, September 23. From at least 1506 there's a carrier present, and rather strong at 1510. Talk suddenly came on at 1511:30 or so. At 1512 I heard Qur'an or similar recitation. Splatter from KCBS on 6100. Music continued to 1527, with the signal gradually deteriorating as dawn progressed (still chanting by a woman at 1529:50, and an improvement again in strength). Time pips 1530, and a short announcement, followed by fanfare and then a mention of Afghanistan. Too much splatter from Korea followed. Checking the morning of the 24th, the carrier did not come on until after 1515, but was present at 1525 tune-in. Not as strong this morning. They might have a transmitter problem, as they seem to be gone at 1533. Checked again at 1520 on the 25th, and they're there already with weak talk. I didn't hear any time pips at 1530, but again, there's someone with low modulation, but too weak to tell much else. (Walt Salmaniw-BC via dxldyg via WORLD OF RADIO 1584, DX LISTENING DIGEST)

This is a summary of selected occupancies, between 0430 and 0500, made on 13 October 2011 in the Olinda Forest, 40 km east of central Melbourne, with the Eton E5 and a 3 m antenna. BANGLADESH 4750, Bangladesh Betar, 1418, October 18. My recent receptions here have clearly been due to propagation favoring Bangladesh, rather than RRI Makassar; subcontinent music. From 1450 to 1500*; ID: "Bangladesh Betar"; speech in assume Bengali; ID and off, leaving RRI Makassar with fairly clear reception over CNR1 QRM. (Ron Howard-CA)

CANADA 6160, 0730, October 4. English unable to determine which station, constant local noise on this frequency difficult to avoid even with three antennas. Need 49 meter directional dipole? (Wilkner-FL)

6305, Free Radio, Radio True North, 0507-0530, October 10. Rock music, soon to live DJ thanking us for reports; says he is having fun, mostly playing vinyl tonight, timecheck for 0507 UTC and this time clear ID as "Free Radio, Radio True

North". S9+5 with occasional lite SSB QRM; 0508 "Thank God, I'm a Country Boy" by Denver; 0511 "The Keeper of the Stars", 0515 "If you live in Canada, it's our Thanksgiving Day", two hours or one and a half until Monday now. 0517 Mamas & Papas, "Monday2", a favorite of DXers; record skips briefly lending credence to the vinyl claim. 0520 "Against the Wind", by Bob Seger. 0524 ID again and approx. TC at 0523, thanks for reports, having lots of fun tonight, spinning a lot of vinyl which he loves to share. Then Peter Schilling's "Major Tom". 0530 fading down if not out. (RTN has been reported many times before as Canadian, and seems definitely near west coast, but this could be a deception; nevertheless, I am filing it under CANADA instead of non-committal North America.). (Glenn Hauser, OK, DX LISTENING DIGEST)

CHAD 6164.96, RNT, 2200-2229*, October 9. French talk. Afro-pop music. National Anthem at 2228. Poor to fair with some adjacent channel splatter. (Alexander-PA)

CHINA 4940, Voice of Strait, 1500-1530, October 8. Ex: 1505-1535. Pips; a few words in Chinese then into EE; starts with multiple "Voice of Strait" IDs, but with one clear overlay of "Voice of Shanghai" included (strange!); Saturday only program: "Hello. Welcome to another edition of Focus on China"; news stories from the past week; US Congress considering legislation about China's currency, increase in value of Yuan, trade imbalance, People's Bank of China, segment about National Day, etc.; 1516 IDs for both Voice of Strait and Focus on China; poor with light AIR Guwahati QRM; best at 1500 and fading down. In another 2-4 weeks should have much better reception. (Howard-CA)

5050, Beibu Bay Radio (BBR), 1324 abd 1424, October 8. With the end of the Golden Week Holiday they no longer had Chinese programming, but went back to their normal Vietnamese; fair to good. Still no trace of Ozy Radio (Howard-CA)

CLANDESTINE 9960, KPPM Radio (Khmer People Power Movement) via T8WH PALAU, *1200, October 8. 4870, Voice of Iranian Kurdistan, 0230-0300. With Kurdish mx and talk. Strong at 0230, but Iranian jammer gradually gained strength. At a little after 0345 shifted to 4880 and evaded jammer until about about 0300. // 3970 was there; buried in ARO and jammer. Jammer later moved to 3965, but cland was not audible. (Wilkner-FL)

ETHIOPIA [NON]. 15370, 1700, October 9. Quite weak signal but something is there, now scheduled daily 1700-1800 as new clandestine broadcast by ESAT (Ethiopian Satellite Television, radio side). See http://www.ethsat.com/ESAT_Radio_Launch_Press_Release_07_Oct_2011.htm. Last month it had tested various frequencies in the 15.7s. Site uncertain now; Wolfgang Büschel suggests via TDP, Issoudun, France? Ivo Ivanov suggests Armenia or Moldova. Weaker here than e.g. 15380 listed as IBB, 250 kW via Nauen, Germany. France should be more audible here if 15370 be thence. 15370 is bound to be jammed, and ESAT say they will add more frequencies if necessary. Wolfgang says there may be an additional transmission on Saturday and/or Sunday at 1830-1930 (Glenn Hauser, OK, DX LISTENING DIGEST)

NOTE: The English service is only using Kigali, Rwanda, as Sines, Portugal, and Trincomalee, Sri Lanka, are being closed. (Coady-ON)

NOTE: From Wolfgang Bueschel: DW will cease German Language service worldwide effective October 29, 2011. This ends 58 years of shortwave service to German speakers, since 1953. That's a pity, and follows great Radio Sweden and Swiss Radio International organizations in last decade, and Radio Netherlands Hilversum will follow that slope down in coming three years too.

GUAM 12005, R. Free Asia, 1615, October 11. Strong, w/ M in Chinese. (Barton-AZ)

GUATEMALA 4055, R. Verdad, 1155, October 10. Hasn't faded out yet, in non-Spanish language; intonation sounds rather like Korean, but maybe the local vernacular. Could even be Korean as has been multi-lingual including Japanese. (Glenn Hauser, OK, DX LISTENING DIGEST)

INDIA 5050, AIR Aizawl, 1203-1310, October 24. Have been monitoring here looking for the return of Ozy Radio (Australia), but was surprised today to find instead the reactivation of AIR. A new transmitter? Much stronger than I recall hearing them in the past. Best reception only possible when the much stronger Beibu Bay Radio (BBR) had a segment of just talking, as when they played music was almost impossible to make out AIR. Played mostly slow tempo songs (sounded very much like religious songs?); 1220 news in English (Maoist combatants still in camps and unrest in Nepal, etc.); back to same type of songs; 1300 "All India Radio, Aizawl "; news in assume Hindi with another ID at 1307. This of course is extremely bad news for Ozy Radio! A brief MP3 audio at <http://www.box.net/shared/78rmuoyhr0derubhesyt>. (Ron Howard-CA)

9425, AIR, Bengaluru - National Channel, 1503, October 9. "SAARC" news in English; a fortnight long joint military exercise between India and Bangladesh to begin; India Foreign Secretary Ranjan Mathai will review developmental projects in the war ravaged northern province in Sri Lanka; "and that's the end of this SAARC news bulletin "; into Hindi and subcontinent music. This news is perhaps only on Sunday? SAARC is the South Asian Association for Regional Cooperation. (Ron Howard-Asilomar State Beach, CA)

11670, AIR, Bengaluru, 2104, October 13. AIR news in heavily-accented English ending with "main points" in true colonial style; 2105 onto another YL with Commentary. Good signal but with flutter. English is 2045-2230 and 1745-1945 with Hindi in between, 500 kW from Bengaluru at 320 degrees (HFCC), or 325 (Aoki), somewhat favorable for US beyond Europe, and still free of Cuba-Venezuelan blockage after 2200. (Glenn Hauser, OK, DX LISTENING DIGEST)

INDONESIA 3325, RRI Palangkaraya, 1350, October 1. The best signal on the band by far this morning. Man and woman in Indonesian, songs, "Palangkaraya" at 1358, 1400 repeated notes on electronic keyboard, time pips, woman with ID. Good. (Sellers-BC)

3325, RRI Palangkaraya, September 16 report in the October LN, it turns out that the preacher I heard via RRI Palangkaraya was in fact Peter Youngren and he is not African-American as I first thought from listening to his preaching. Was rather surprised by the large number of people who attended the "Palangkaraya Friendship Festival". "View Photos" at <http://www.peteryoungren.org/>. Full story of the event and all of the daily happenings is posted at <http://www.peteryoungren.org/impact/festivals/palangkaraya-indonesia-2011/full_story/>. (Ron Howard-CA)

21670, VIRI, 1248, October 10. Very poor signal, first time heard here, but // 17560, i.e. VIRI Malay service ("Melau" in HFCC), 500 kW, 115 degrees from Sirjan on 21670 at 1230-1327. Tnx to Terry Krueger, FL tip. (Glenn Hauser, OK, DX LISTENING DIGEST)

ISRAEL 9235, Galei Zahal, 0510, October 3. Hebrew, interview with many mentions of Israel. Poor. (Sellers-BC)

ITALY [NON], via ROMANIA 15610, IRRS, *1257-1305, October 9. Abrupt sign on with English program in progress about medical marijuana regulations in California. Opening IRRS theme music at 1258:37. IRRS ID at 1300 and into religious programming by Brother Stair. Good. (Alexander-PA)

JAPAN 5985, Sea Breeze, 1331, October 14. Coming in well, and it's Friday, so in English. Unfortunately, the English is so heavily accented I can't make much out of it. The 5985.8v het from Myanmar is barely audible. First there is intro with contact info, piano background. 1333, "Today's News Flash ", many brief items attributed to an abbreviated news agency both at start and stop, and same musical sounder in between, more than once a minute. Datelines covered Oct 12 and other dates during past week, but thought I heard future Oct 20 also mentioned. 1340 end that segment, and on to "News of North Korea ". Apparently no listing of abductees today. 1353 a little weaker but still audible. Many other and stronger signals from China, E Asia were also still in on 49m this day, so our much-improved season for hearing Shiokeaze is underway (Glenn Hauser, OK, DX LISTENING DIGEST)

11710, Voice of Korea, 1315, October 9. Super-pompous VOK announcer concluding news mentions a string of other countries, but does not pronounce Austria as "Austriar" even though he pronounces

Korea as "Korear" --- what's with that? (Glenn Hauser, OK, DX LISTENING DIGEST)

KUWAIT 15540, R. Kuwait, 1930, October 8. Starting 'Kuwait in the Heart of History' until 1942 then back to Western pop music. Discussed border issues with Iraq since 1750. (Glenn Hauser, OK, DX LISTENING DIGEST)

MOROCCO 9775, Radio Medi Un, 0516, October 4. Woman in Arabic, sounded like news with several mentions of Morocco, 0517 man in French. Fair. (Sellers-BC)

NEW ZEALAND 9655, RNZI, 1001, October 1. News then oldies music program at 1005. This is supposed to be on 6170 and RNZI's website shows no change. Frequency closing announcements at 1057 advising to tune to 9655, then IS so this was obviously a mistake. (Mark Coody-ON)

PERU 4774.95, thanks to all for help in determining that R Tarma is apparently the Peruvian here in the mornings. Was hoping for something more surprising/interesting than this favorite Andes station, but IDs of R Tarma by several fellow DXers of the broadcasts on this precise freq seem to leave little in doubt. Thanks to Thomas N, Dario M, Pedro A and Henrik K! Last winter I was able to hear R Tarma with very nice signals, quite often, so eventually I also should be able to hear an ID to set my mind at ease, too, hi. Yesterday heard this station again, not even a third as strong as I've heard R Tarma in the past, but with clear "cinco de la manana . . ." t/ccks during the 1000 hour and also references to " . . . nuestra programacion de la musica nacional . . ." One other question remains to be answered, though: just how many live program streams does R Tarma produce? I previously would have thought just one, relayed on AM, FM and onda corta. But at least one morning this week, I noted unique, independent programming 'live' on onda corta versus the live webcast's program. Surprising to hear a morning folklorico pgm with live t/cks on the shortwave fq, and then a second, unique (not the O.C. being relayed) morning folklorico pgm with live t/cks on the webstream. The shortwave programming was the beloved, very funky tuba huayno type, featuring what could only be recordings of a small Andean village's folkloric marching band. On the other hand, the webcast carried music that I'd call techno-folklorico, being very fast-paced huaynos, staccato and endlessly repetitive, on synthesizer with electronic percussion. Rather unpleasant stuff, at least for my ears, as I am a traditionalist in this regard, hi. What is this world coming to? hi The R Tarma website seems to indicate shared programming for AM and FM. I have written them to try and sort this out. (Perry, IL)

PHILIPPINES 11720, DZRM Radyo Magasin, 1726-1809, October 5. Simulcast via R. Pilipinas. songs. This was the Wednesday only simulcast of "DZRM Radyo Magasin 1278 kHz"; 11720 best; // 9395 and 15190 fair to poor. 15190 with no Radio Africa. Audio streaming working well at, www.pbs.gov.ph/dzrm/. (Howard-CA)

For the third time in recent months have heard the same ID at the same identical time; starts with religious song; spelled out: "w-w-w-s-o-u-n-d-o-f-h-o-p-e-o-r-g" followed by "Sound of Hope" in EE. What I once found very difficult to ID, now seems to be fairly easy. (Howard-CA)

THAILAND 9575, Radio Thailand, 1358, October 17. Gong IS and English ID as "HSK9, Radio Thailand's World Service, broadcasting from the Public Relations Department in Bangkok", repeat IS and ID. Good and clear signal right after Australia closed 9580. However, off at 1359* and back on weaker at *1400 just in time for pips, ID as "Radio Thailand, AM 9-18, time for the 8 pm news magazine". Must be delayed an hour since local time is now 9 pm (UT +7). And Udorn must have been late, making the beam switch from 54 degrees for the 1330-1400 Thai broadcast to 132 degrees for the 1400-1430 English. Should have done so before the IS/ID break. (Glenn Hauser, OK, DX LISTENING DIGEST)

TIBET 6200, Xizang PBS via Lhasa, 1530-1600, October 7. The "Holy Tibet" show in EE; "This is China Tibet Broadcasting", "This is Holy Tibet"; special show about the National Day Golden Week Holiday; transportation figures on how many people will be traveling during Golden Week; played many traditional Tibetan songs. In another 2-4 weeks this will again return to an enjoyable level for listening to one of my favorite shows. (Howard-CA)

TIBET via TAJIKISTAN 15443, V. of Tibet, 1325, October 10. Chinese talk, poor vs het on 15445. I suspect the latter is Firedrake or CNR1 jamming with the split frequency being V. of Tibet. 15443 cut off in mid-word at 1327:30* while 15445 carrier continued. (Glenn Hauser, OK, DX LISTENING DIGEST)

TUNISIA 7275, Radio Tunisienne, 0508, October 4. Arabic music, Good, //9725 which signs-off at 0510, Fair. (Sellers-BC)

9725, Radio Tunisienne, 0501, October 3. Woman in Arabic with news headlines, re-check at 0506 and playing Arabic music. Missed s/off at 0510, gone when I checked back at 0512. Fair. (Sellers-BC)

TURKEY 9515, Voice of Turkey, 0321, October 19. English, program looking at Turkish music, program IDed as "Turkish People for Beginners", a very interesting title, followed by a plug for VOT podcasts and ID. Very good. (Sellers-BC)

UGANDA 4976, Radio Uganda, Kampala, 0408-0415, October 13. Talk by man in what sounded like English. Very weak signal, only occasionally peaking above the noise. Much weaker than Zimbabwe on 4828. (Evans - TN)

UGANDA via FRANCE 15410, Radio Y'Abaganda, 1700-1715, October 22. Sign on with local African music. Choral anthem at 1701. Talk in listed Swahili at 1705. Many mentions of Uganda. Abruptly pulled plug mid-sentence at 1715. Good. Saturday only. (Alexander-PA)

UNIDENTIFIEDS 4699.408, 0930-0940, September 30. Español, weak signal, difficult to follow, transmitter drift constant. (Wilkner, MR-Plantation FL)

4699.432 Possibly "Radio San Miguel, Riberalta", 0950, October 1. Noted en español, weak and drifting, off at 1020 recheck. (Wilkner-FL)

4699.418 drifting, CP possibly, 0912, October 4. Om en español till 1005, long om talk; fading out; thunder storm static, seems on every day recently, slow transmitter drift. (Wilkner-FL)

4775, BRAZIL, somewhat garbled identificação em português, 0000 to 0010, October 1. (Wilkner, XM Cedar Key-FL)

U.A.E. 9725, FEBA Radio, 0257, October 12. Songs, 0258 Dari (listed) ID and address, at 0257 carrier came on from Tunisia but no het. Poor. (Sellers-BC)

UNITED KINGDOM via SOUTH AFRICA 6145, BBC, 0347, October 19. English, "Network Africa" with piece on Mozambique, 0350 ID and sports news. Good. (Sellers-BC)

USA 7540, VOA via Tinang, Philippines, 1448, October 14. VOA with correspondents' discussion show Fridays at 1430, poor with squeal, but not sure if it's QRM or emanating from the 250 kW transmitter itself. Don't bother trying for this on weekends as this hour is airing only M-F (Glenn Hauser, OK, DX LISTENING DIGEST)

9855 VoA via BOTSWANA, 0305, October 19. English, ending news, James Duffy with "Daybreak Africa". Fair. (Sellers-BC)

15190, WYFR, 2225 check, October 9. WYFR in Portuguese talking about tribulação; lite het presumably from off-frequency R. Inconfidência, BRAZIL. Just in case anyone forgot, WYFR is still here at +2200-0045* in Portuguese, sometimes with English elements. We keep seeing occasional reports of R. Africa, Equatorial Guinea on 15190 without any definite ID, which was last certainly heard in April or May (Glenn Hauser, OK, DX LISTENING DIGEST)

VATICAN 7250, Vatican Radio, 0505, October 4. English to Europe, woman reporting on the famine in the Horn of Africa. Excellent. Not //9660 which was English to Africa and very poor. (Sellers-BC)

7250, Vatican Radio, 0452, October 9. VR is back in French; was absent 23 hours earlier (Glenn Hauser, OK, DX LISTENING DIGEST)

9900, Vatican Radio, via Novosibirsk, 1222, October 17. Tone on and off, 1230 bells and music followed by woman with sign-on in Chinese (Mandarin listed). Poor. (Sellers-BC)

11625, Vatican Radio via Madagascar, 0345, October 12. Beginning Somali program (as per their website), woman mentioned Africa, Nairobi and Kenya. At 0358 played a brief snippet of IS before going off suddenly. Very good. (Sellers-BC)

ZAMBIA 5915, ZNBC, 0244-0300, October 1. Tune-in to Fish Eagle IS. Choral National Anthem at 0251. Local African music and vernacular talk at 0253. Weak. Poor in thunderstorm static. (Alexander-PA)

ZIMBABWE 4828, Zimbabwe BC, Gweru, 0406-0415, October 13. Ballad music, talk by man in what appeared to be English. Weak signal in noise from passing storms. CODAR interference was also present. Faded down into the noise after 0415. (Evans - TN)

Pirate Radio Report

Mike Rohde • 2615 Willow Glen Road • Hilliard, OH 43026 • hfpirates@gmail.com

Hello and it is hard to believe that it is November already but welcome to the November Pirate Report! Activity started out quite robust this month but has tapered off to a low but somewhat steady level. The real news this month as I see it is the increased reception of our pirate friends across the pond. As I mentioned last month November is usually prime time for hearing the European ops. A few weeks ago on Saturday October 22 I got up about 8:00 AM Eastern time here in central Ohio and fired up the radios to find good European traffic on the 18-20 meter bands. I also heard Radio Baltic Sea on 27.9001sb mHz. These favorable conditions continued until past mid day here in Ohio. Some of the stations were coming in with very stable signals accompanied by very nice audio. I only hope that as time progresses and the journal arrives in your hands that the conditions continue to be favorable. A few pirate Dxers have awoken from their summer slumber this month so we have a nice batch of logs this month. My, thanks to all who contributed this month.

Ann Hoffer Live, 6925U 2357-0006* 10/9-10/11 SIO=242/242+. Prgm of various classic rock tunes covered by Ann. She has such a low range in her voice that she almost sounds like an OM. One tune that she sung was Nights in White Satin. Pretty good level. No addr ancd. My first time for this one. The ID was "Ann Hoffer Live," not Ann Hoffer R. (Zeller-OH)

Gave a call letter ID of WFRMD or similar. Multiple Family R. IDs as well. Pop mx and discussion of the family by OM and YL. Similar format as what I've hrd from them in the past, and seems not to be a WYFR parody, although it uses the same ID or slogan. Clobbered by a second loud carrier at 0112. (Zeller-OH)

25 de Mayo, 1976

Estimado SAMUEL:

Muy atentamente le estoy dando contestación a su carta recibida el 24 de Mayo de 1976 y agradeciéndole los informes que nos da de nuestra emisora.

El fin que RADIO PROGRESO se propone es promover la formación integral del hombre: en la dimensión cultural, social, educacional, y religiosa.

Así ofrecemos los programas de las Escuelas Radionáuticas Susypa con sus cursos de alfabetización, higiene y salud, aritmética, agricultura, y desarrollo comunitario, como también un nuevo plan de estudios de cuatro niveles que capacita al adulto para recibir su certificado de educación primaria.

RADIO PROGRESO trabaja en la frecuencia 1110 KHZ con un poderoso transmisor Westinghouse 10-HY-1 de 10 KW, con transmisor Gates BC-1F de 1 KW de "stans-by", y en la frecuencia 4720 KHZ en la banda Internacional de 50 metros con un transmisor CBS "custom-built" de 1500 watts, y entre las 16:00 y 20:00 horas tiempo local con el transmisor Collins FRT-27.

El plantel de estudios de RADIO PROGRESO cuenta con seis modernas oficinas: Gerencia, Dirección, Secretaría, Programación, contabilidad, Prensa y Deportes, con tres estudios y dos cabinas de control. Cada cabina cuenta con consola Collins (212-E), dos tornaseras Gates (CB-500), dos grabadores Ampex (351) con su respectivo control remoto, dos cartucheras automáticas Telco, y receptor Hammarlund SP-600 para retransmisión directa. Contamos con torre vertical a tierra de 210 pies de altura antena tipo "folded unipole" para la onda media. Para la onda corta empleamos una antena tipo dipolo para el transmisor CBS; para el transmisor Collins usamos otra antena dipolo o bien una antena vertical de 50 pies con sus correspondientes radiales.

Acusamos recibo de su reporte de fecha 7 de Abril de 1976 de nuestra poderosa onda corta desde las 18:30 horas G.M.T / Hora Local hasta las 18:46 horas G.M.T / Hora Local.

Agradeciéndole su reporte de recepción y esperando siempre contar con su colaboración, le quedo,

International Broadcasting (continued) by Kim Andrew Elliott

Renovate the old VOA Kavala, Greece, site for DRM digital shortwave?

"Although I helped design and build many VOA facilities worldwide, the finest ever built was constructed in Kavala, Greece, with 12 each CEC 250 kW HF transmitters, a 500 kW CEC medium-wave transmitter, two 50 kW HF communication transmitters, power plant, curtain antennas (more than 36), houses, etc. That station was closed about six years ago and turned over to the Greek government; it is now dormant. I am doing my best to find somebody who is willing to renovate it and start operation with DRM [Digital Radio Mondiale digital shortwave]. Its location is ideal for Europe, North Africa, Asia and other targets." (Adil Mina, VP, Continental Electronics, letter to Radio World.)
